SECRETARY DAVIS MAY QUIT CABINET TO SEEK GOVERNORSHIP OF STATE

Coolidge Opposed to Plan Because He Has No One For Labor Post—Wet Candidate Will Oppose Pepper.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—A strange series of circumstances is involving President Coolidge, a member of his cabinet, "The Mellon" political power, a senator and the wet and dry fight in the ominous Pennsylvania primaries.

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis has asked Mr. Coolidge to permit him to run for governor to help the "Mellon" ticket headed by Senator George Wharton Pepper, the United Press was informed today, but Mr. Coolidge desires Davis to stay in the cabinet if possible.

The chief executive has no one in contemplation who would fill the labor post as he desires it filled. Since John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers became involved in the long coal strike, just closed, his availability has not been considered, Mr. Coolidge's friends think. Meantime Davis has not yet made up his mind whether he should run despite the president's mild objections.

A development which may make up his mind for him is the expected, announcement of the candidacy of Rep. Vare, Republican, Pennsylvania to run against Pepper in the primaries. Vare's platform will be soaking wet and the fight will offer the first test of sentiment following recent anti-prohobition polls.

Governor Pinchot is expected to help Vare's candidacy by entering and making it a three cornered race.

Official Answers Charges Made By Executive

By United Press

LORAIN, O., Mar. 11.—Henry George King, attorney and engineer appointed safety director last January as part of Mayor William F. Grail's announced program of giving the city a business administration was today dismissed by the mayor.

Grail, in a letter to King, accused him of lack of co-operation and loyalty.

King stated that his refusal to carry out "illegal and unethical orders of the mayor" led to his dismissal. "The mayor wanted to use police force appointments to pay political debts" King said "and wanted me to suspend veteran members of the force to create vacancies. I knew the suspensions would not be upheld by the civil service commission and refused to make them."

During a previous administration Grail appointed four safety directors and dismissed three.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Secret negotiations for settling France's $4,000,000,000 war debt to the United States are being carried on between Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and French Ambassador Berenger.

High treasury officials said today that Mellon and Berenger were holding "conferences" at frequent intervals to discuss funding of the huge obligation.

At these meetings it is hoped a tentative plan for settlement can be worked out and the final phases of the negotiations completed as soon as the Italian debt pact is ratified by Congress.

These include Sheriff William Wirt and deputies, the several physicians who attended Hoffman, neighbors and others.

SENATOR FESS IS HEARD AT MEETING

United States Senator Simeon D. Fess, Yellow Springs, in an address before the Ohio Retail Dry Goods Association session in Columbus Wednesday night, urged funding of the Italian debt over a period of sixty-two years, with average interest of one and one-eighth per cent.

He attributed the fall of the French ministry and further decline in value of the French franc to unwillingness of France to settle her war debt to the United States on compatible terms. He also advocated American participation in a proposed conference to limit armaments, suggesting it be held in America "away from the European atmosphere charged with rivalries and jealousies, if not bitterness."

SALESMAN CHECKS GEM THEFT ATTEMPT

CANTON, O., Mar. 11.—A $200,000 diamond robbery was frustrated here by the presence of mind of George Hoenig, New York jewelry salesman.

The thugs, among the customers in the store, stepped forward as Hoenig flashed the gems. One struck Hoenig with a blackjack. The other covered the salesman with a pistol and forced him into a rear room. Hoenig, catching the thugs off guard, kicked the wallet containing the gems under the safe in Art's store.

Frightened by screams of women customers the thugs fled to the street.

INQUIRIES FAIL TO FIND WHEREABOUTS OF JAMESTOWN MAN

Masons Aiding In Search —Affairs To Be Settled

Representatives of the Jamestown Masonic Lodge, who are making private inquiries concerning the disappearance of Daniel Lee Earley, 40, prominent Jamestown grain dealer, from his home Monday, were literally confronted with a blank wall Thursday.

Thought to have taken a train for Cincinnati, where his elder son was a student at a law school inquirers announce no attempt to communicate with authorities of that city has been made.

Lodge members are expected to hold a conference at Jamestown Thursday night in which different avenues of investigation may be considered.

Other reports in circulation are to the effect the search may be dropped with Earley's disappearance unsolved.

At the request of the family, Herbert Fisher, cashier of the Bowersville Bank, is taking steps to straighten out Earley's financial transactions and close up his books. Appointment of a receiver may be the next step.

Earley's entire property holdings including his grain elevators at Rosemoor, east of Jamestown, and at New Jasper, three miles from Xenia, are not sufficiently valuable to pay off all debts, it is said.

Unsecured claims of a number of farmers in the county for grain sold are said to amount to $4,000 or $5,000 while secured claims are reported to total at least $2,000.

Private investigation was at a standstill Thursday with no new developments reported.

ONE WAY TO TAG COLLEGIANS

COLUMBUS, Mar. 11—(UP)—Lost, strayed, or stolen collegiate boys may not be so common if a certain style shoe shown at the shoe dealers' convention last week, is generally adopted by the clientele of the seats of learning.

Perforations in the toe caps of the shoes are made in initial letters of schools, universities, and colleges.

Hereafter when police rescue an amnesia victim from the crossbar of a telephone pole who insists he's the reincarnation of Helen of Troy, all they'll have to do will be to examine the toes of the shoes and wire the designated knowledge foundry for instructions.

NATIONS WILL JOIN TO DEMAND REMOVAL OF CHANNEL MINES

Protest Obstructions Violate Treaty Of 1901

By United Press

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The United States government in agreement with the other protocol powers has decided to intervene forcibly in the Chinese situation unless China immediately removes mines from Taku channel and other obstructions to foreign shipping.

Unless China meets these demands which is considered probable, joint naval action by the United States and foreign Asiatic fleets to open Taku, Tien Tsin Harbor, is inevitable.

In a joint note to the Peking government and military commanders, made public by the state department here today the powers protested against such shipping obstruction as violation of the 1901 treaty and threatened "protective measures to be applied against either party without discrimination."

OHIO'S AUTOS WILL SOON BE WORTH ONE BILLION

COLUMBUS, O., March 11.—Two years hence, Ohio will have automobiles representing a cash outlay of $1,008,000,000 according to figures compiled today by the Hemple legislative committee.

The committee, preparing recommendations for the revision and modification of state highway laws, estimates there will be 1,800,000 automobiles in Ohio in 1928.

On the basis of this figure, the National Association of Automotive Engineers has figured $560 as the average cost of rmunning an automobile a year including interest and other items.

A multiplication of these figures, places the state's automobile outlay two years hence at $1,008,000,000.

BRIAND ARRIVES IN GENEVA TO GRAPPLE WITH SEAT PROBLEM

Work of Locarno Is Threatened By New Ruptures

By United Press

GENEVA, March 11 — Premier Briand arrived in Geneva today to grapple with the problem of League of Nations council seats which involves the possibility of failure for the work of Locarno and even a rupture within the league itself.

The league council is scheduled to meet at 4 p.m. for a showdown on the problem of council memberships. Briand began private conversations with members of the council as soon as he arrived.

The statement of Mallo Franco, the principal Brazilian delegate that he had been instructed to veto Germany's election to the council and then to withdraw from the League unless Brazil was given a permanent council seat greatly surprised and impressed the German delegation.

But even if the Germans should change their attitude against enlargement of the council, the situation would remain in menacing stalemate unless Sweden yields. The Swedish foreign minister, Unden, stands on his refusal to approve the election of Spain, Brazil or Poland as a matter of principle.

RICH SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT FOLLOWING ATTACK

Convicted of Assault On Young Girl—Will Appeal

By United Press

MASON, Mich., March 11.—Sentenced to life imprisonment Arthur Rich of Battle Creek, was to leave here today for Jackson State Prison to pay the penalty demanded by the state of Michigan for criminally assaulting Louise King, a Battle Creek College girl. The son of a wealthy steel products manufacturer was found guilty by a circuit court jury after twenty-five minutes deliberation following a bitterly contested twenty day re-trial.

Denying a stay of sentence, Judge Charles B. Collingwood briefly conferred with Rich in his private chambers, returned to the court and immediately imposed the maximum penalty possible under the laws of the state.

Rich was held to have brutally beaten the twenty-year-old girl wth his fists, fracturing her jaw bone in five places and then criminally assaulting her during a stroll on a Battle Creek golf course last May. He denied the attack, admitted he was drunk and asserted the girl was "helplessly intoxicated."

It is believed the case is certain to be appealed. A $100,000 civil damage suit pending against the convicted youth on the same charge will be pressed to a verdict despite outcome of the criminal trial, attorneys for Miss King announced.

This remark, overheard while passing a group of youngsters on their way to school was taken as a sure harbinger of Spring.

Boys have been taking advantage of the soft earth these many days to dig their knuckles into the mud shooting marbles. But it was left to the small school lass to forecast the first approach of Spring.

STATE OWNERSHIP OF BRITISH COAL MINE BUSINESS OPPOSED

Miners And Operators Join In Protest Of Royal Report

By United Press

LONDON, March 11.—Miners and operators today protested against the Royal Coal Commissioner's report recommending national ownership and private operation of British coal mines.

The commission sought to prevent a general strike of railway men, transport workers and miners on May 1.

It is estimated that acquisition of proved and unproved coal deposits in Great Britain would cost the state $500,000,000.

Miners and operators join in protest against the recommendation that a government coal subsidy be withdrawn while the owners object to maintenance of the seven hour day and will ask revision of wage standard.

Both groups were busy today studying the voluminous report.

Owners and operators were shocked by the commission's recommendations. It demanded first that the government seize the enormous deposits of "unproved coal" in Britain and simultaneous purchase the existing proved deposits. This amounts to nationalization of royalties. The commissioner said an indirect reduction in wages would be indispensible.

Continuation of the subsidy was opposed by the commissioners although they discreetly refrained from stating their opinion as to whether or not it would have been avoidable last August when the government rushed to the treasury and found $50,000,000 with which to buy off the operators and miners from their respective intentions to declare a lockout and a strike.

ARREST OF SUSPECT AND ACCOMPLICE IS PLANNED THIS WEEK

Prominent Citizens Of Troy Involved Is "Inside" Report

By United Press

TROY, O., March 11.—The climax in the sensational Frances Drake Nesbitt murder mystery if predictions are borne out, will come either today, tomorrow or Saturday it was believed today.

The nature of the denouement of the now famous enigma is said to be known to the host of investigators probing the mystery.

To those outside the "inner circle" only two courses were believed open:

1—The arrest of a suspect and an accomplice.

2—The complete abandonment of the investigation.

Those in close touch with the situation claim that arrests will be made and that they will involve several Troy citizens—most of them prominent—not previously mentioned in the investigation.

To those who have watched the inquiry from a distance and garnered their information from newspapers, abandonment of the investigation, was the only course open. They insist the murderer of Mrs. Nesbitt will not be arrested for months—and perhaps years.

Mrs. Nesbitt was murdered three weeks ago. Her husband, Jacob, found her body. It was in the bath tub of their home. Mrs. Nesbitt had been strangled. Her head bore three deep lacerations, one of which penetrated the skull and caused concussion of the brain.

No motive for the murder has been advanced.

Only the possibility that arrests will be made, revived a glimmer of interest in the case today. The citizens of Troy and surrounding communities had all but discontinued discussing the case until Prosecutor Harvey's announcement that developments may be expected.

Special investigator Ora Slater of Cincinnati and Nesbitt returned last night after a flying trip to the Youngstown region. The trip was made in Nesbitt's automobile.

On his return, Slater said he had no information that could be given out at this time. He admitted he was following a new line of investigation, however.

Slater's latest procedure, it was understood, involves the questioning of a number of Troy citizens, who heretofore have not been mentioned at all, but some are socially prominent here, it was said.

CRABBE DENIES HIS OFFICE IN INQUIRY

COLUMBUS, O., March 11.—Reports from Troy that a representative of the attorney general's office has joined the investigation of the Frances Drake Nesbitt murder mystery were declared unfounded by Attorney General Crabbe this afternoon.

Reports from Troy this morning said Bert B. Buckley, a Dayton attorney, is taking part in the investigation at the behest of Crabbe.

"If Buckley has joined the inquiry he has done so on his own initiative and not by order of my department," Crabbe said.

Buckley was appointed state counsel to represent Crabbe in several Dayton cases.

Crabbe said his office could not join the probe until ordered to do so by Governor Donahey.

TRACY IS PROBING ROADS DEPARTMENT

CLEVELAND, O., March 11—State Auditor Joseph Tracy was in Cleveland today in connection with his investigation of "campaign contributions" involving the purchase of equipment by the state highway department.

Tracy will be joined late today by Attorney General Crabbe.

In addition to continuing the inquiry, Tracy planned to reorganize the work of state examiners assigned to Cuyahoga County. The re-organization is necessitated, he said, by the recent death of examiner M. K. Patterson.

The auditor said he also planned to assign an auditing engineer to check up expenditures in various municipalities, said to total millions of dollars.

DRY LEADERS URGE FOLLOWERS TO AVOID POLLS ON PROHIBITION BEING HELD BY NEWSPAPERS

By United Press

WASHINGTON, March 11—Dry leaders sent forth word today to their followers to avoid newspaper polls on prohibition.

Claiming that these polls are one-sided, open to "repeaters" and not at all indicative of real sentiment in the land the leaders warned that the dry question has been settled in "orderly fashion" and the polls are superfluous.

Senator Wesleyan Jones, Republican, Washington dry leader told the United Press that "dry leaders are advising their constituents against participating in the newspaper polls—the wise thing to do, I think."

"These polls" he said "have no special significance. I received a telegram from one of the prohibition leaders in my state yesterday who announced he had advised the people to take no part in the polls. In Seattle, a recent poll showed the wets ahead 100 to 1 but in the election a law enforcement mayor, Mrs. Landes, was elected."

His statement preceded a meeting of a Senate Judiciary committee which it was said, might result in a favorable vote to grant "beer hearings" to Senators Edge, Bruce and Edwards.

"I think the polls are highly significant" said Senator William Cabel Bruce, Maryland, Democrat wet leader to the United Press, "though of course they represent largely the opinion of cities and are by no means to be accepted as indicative of public sentiment in the rural communities. As far as they go they are specially significant because they were taken before the results could have been influenced by the organized efforts of either prohibitionists or anti-prohibitionists."

This sentiment was echoed by C. C. Hinckley, National Secretary of the Association against the Prohibition Amendment.

"Politicians cannot afford to overlook this expression of public opinion. We are very much in favor of referenda on prohibition as there has never been a direct vote on this question."

The association previously had endorsed the plan of District Attorney Buckner of New York for any referendum and for a state law to forbid alcohol, except wine and beer.

MANKIND WILL LOAF EVEN IN RURAL OHIO SURVEY IS SHOWING

Man's loafing habit seeks satisfaction in the open country just as it does in the city.

So a detailed survey of two Ohio counties, conducted under the direction of C. E. Lively, professor of rural sociology at the Ohio State University, indicates. Both counties are predominantly rural, one of them being in southeastern Ohio, the other in the northwestern quarter of the state.

The country store, usually located where two roads cross, holds a prominent place in the southeastern county as a place for loafing. Of eighty three possible loafing places in that county, seventy seven are stores, nineteen of them in villages, thirty one in hamlets, and twenty seven in the open country.

The northwestern county has fewer county loafing places, but probably just as much loafing, Professor Lively believes. Only thirty seven loafing places were found, twenty one of them in villages, twelve in hamlets, and four in the open country.

Men are the sole habitues of the country stores, the survey showed, and they predominate at loafing places in village and hamlet. Attendance at such places averaged from seven to nine in the southeastern county, and from fifteen to twenty in the northwestern county.

Only twenty seven per cent of the loafing places in the southeastern county were considered of good repute by the neighbors; eight per cent were classed as bad. In the northwestern county seventy six per cent were given a good reputation, and eleven per cent a bad one.

LONDON, March 11—(UP)—Nearly two thousand animals have been destroyed as the result of gas poisoning experiments carried out by the government since May, 1923.

These include rabbits, rats, goats, guinea pigs, monkeys, mice and horses. Five of the latter have been destroyed.

AIR PILOT EFFECTS LANDING WITH ONLY ONE WHEEL ON SHIP

Lieutenant Lester Maitland, piloting an airplane, experienced more thrills in a few minutes than a majority of people are afforded in a lifetime in making a unique landing at Wilbur Wright Field Wednesday.

Shortly after "taking off" Wednesday afternoon in a D. H. plane, the lieutenant found himself to be without the services of one wheel on the landing gear.

He found he must attempt a landing on one wheel. Swooping over the earth several times to find a suitable stop to land, he brought the plane to the ground but was forced to make a "two-point" landing.

Plane settled to the earth on its left wheel and tail skid and made a run of more than 200 yards on one wheel. At this point, the airplane lost speed and fell on its right side.

The lieutenant escaped personal injury but his plane was damaged by a broken wing and propeller.

The Story of a Girl Who Took Life Into Her Own Hands

Copyright, 1925, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

MARY WAITE, a stenographer, has a misunderstanding with STEWART HOWE, whom she loves, because she has accepted the attentions of an older man,

PAT HAMILTON, who is a prominent politician. Mary finds that Hamilton's interest in her is the wrong kind, and runs away from him one evening when they are dining together. Soon afterward she loses her position, and gets another with

STANLEY BLAKE, who has just gone into business for himself. She meets

CELIA STEWART, and together they set up housekeeping in two rooms. Celia meets Blake, and flirts with him.

XVII—A MYSTERY

VIOLET DARE

WHEN Mary returned later that evening after her cousin and she had gone to the movies, she found that Celia had not gone to bed, in spite of the fact that she had said she had a headache, but was sitting in the window seat, wearing a Chinese lounging suit.

It was remarkably beautiful, and Mary exclaimed with delight over it.

"What a gorgeous suit, Celia," she said. "It must be new, isn't it?"

"Yes, it is; my brother sent it to me," Celia replied. She reached out one hand and drew Mary down beside her.

"I'm afraid I was snippy to you and your cousin, this evening," she said. "I'm awfully sorry. I'd worked so hard all day, and felt so upset, somehow, and I had looked forward to having a good talk with you this evening, and then when I came in and saw her here, something just seemed to snap inside me. I'm so fond of you, Mary dear, and I do depend on you so—I really believe I'm jealous of Lulu," she added, with a little laugh.

Mary laughed, too, whole heartedly. "As if there was any reason for you to be," she said. "You know how much I think of you. I felt worried about you—you looked as if you'd been crying, when you came in."

"Well, I hadn't!" snapped Celia. "And I wish you wouldn't spy on me." Her voice had changed almost unbelievably. Then an instant afterward she was in tears, her head on Mary's shoulder. "Oh dear—I'm so horrid!" she exclaimed. "Do please forgive me, Mary—I didn't mean to act like that. I'm just worn out, that's all."

"You must go to bed at once, then," Mary exclaimed. "Did you have any dinner?"

"Well, I—no, I didn't, that is, not much," Celia told her, slowly.

"I'll fix some for you—some toast and hot soup; that would be good for you, and I'm sure you'll go right to sleep when you've had it."

And so, while Celia went to bed, Mary made soup and toast, and after she had taken a tray to Celia, went back to wash the dinner dishes and put them away. She was very tired. She could not help remembering the days when she had lived at her aunt's. After all, it hadn't been very pleasant, living in another person's house, but she hadn't had anything but herself on her mind. And now she had Celia!

She could not help wondering about that Chinese suit. She knew that it must have been very expensive. And Celia's brother, according to Celia, was not in the habit of making her presents, even very cheap ones.

Celia had been crazy to have one of those suits—Mary knew that well enough. She was always talking about them, and making Mary stop in front of oriental goods shops where they were shown in the windows, and once she got Mary to take her noon hour for shopping, and go with her to a department store where they were having a sale of the suits, but they were so expensive that Celia couldn't dream of getting one.

"It's a waste of time to look at them," Mary had told her, but Celia had just laughed.

"I had to know exactly what I wanted," she answered. "Some day I'll have one of those suits. I always get what I want, sooner or later—usually sooner!"

Well, now she had one. Probably she'd written her brother and asked him to give it to her. It must have cost a lot; its embroideries were done in gold thread and it was of beautifully heavy satin.

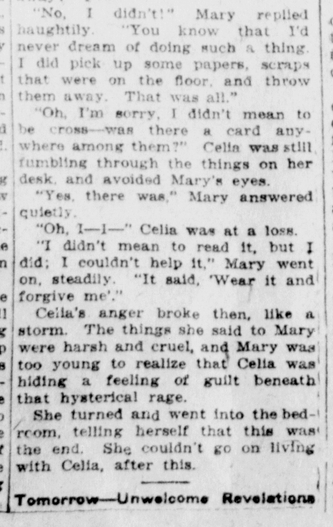

The next day was Sunday, so Mary did not wake Celia when she herself got up at eight o'clock, and had a leisurely breakfast with the morning paper propped up in front of her. How lovely it must be, she thought, to have lots of time for breakfast every morning!

But she couldn't linger too long over hers, even on Sunday. She must straighten up the rooms, and then, if Celia wasn't awake yet, she'd go for a walk. She glanced about, noting some papers on the floor near the desk, and went to pick them up. Without meaning to, she read a card that was among them.

"Wear it and forgive me," was scrawled on it.

There were no initials. The writing was familiar; she studied it a moment. It looked ever so much like Stanley Blake's writing. She turned suddenly hot at that thought, and tossed it among the papers she was gathering together to throw away. Of course it couldn't be Mr. Blake's writing!

She finished her work, dressed and went for her walk, determined not to think of that card. Probably—

Celia was wearing a Chinese lounging suit.

oh, of course, not probably at all!—Celia's brother had written that card and sent it to her with the lounging suit. She dismissed the whole thing.

When she came home, Celia was rummaging in her desk.

"Lost anything?" Mary asked.

"Yes, I—you haven't been at my desk, have you?" Celia's voice was sharp.

"No, of course not. I picked up the papers on the floor when I was cleaning the room this morning, that was the only time I——"

"What papers? Did you take papers off my desk and throw them away? I——"

"No, I didn't!" Mary replied haughtily. "You know that I'd never dream of doing such a thing. I did pick up some papers, scraps that were on the floor, and throw them away. That was all."

"Oh, I'm sorry, I didn't mean to be cross—was there a card anywhere among them?" Celia was still fumbling through the things on her desk, and avoided Mary's eyes.

"Yes, there was," Mary answered quietly.

"Oh, I—I—" Celia was at a loss.

"I didn't mean to read it, but I did; I couldn't help it," Mary went on, steadily. "It said, 'Wear it and forgive me'."

Celia's anger broke then, like a storm. The things she said to Mary were harsh and cruel, and Mary was too young to realize that Celia was hiding a feeling of guilt beneath that hysterical rage.

She turned and went into the bedroom, telling herself that this was the end. She couldn't go on living with Celia, after this.

Chew a few! Stomach fine! So pleasant, so inexpensive, so quick to settle an upset stomach. The moment "Pape's Diapepsin" reaches the stomach all pain and distress from indigestion or a sour, gassy stomach vanishes.

Millions know its magic. All druggists recommend this harmless stomach corrective.—Adv.

Glad He Picked This Good Stomach Remedy

Puts Stomach in Fine Condition —Ends Dizzy Spells, Catarrh and Makes You Sleep Well.

Injudicious eating causes acute indigestion, gas, heartburn, heaviness and sour stomach—sometimes the distended stomach causes that dreadful feeling of near suffocation.

Isn't it worth something to know of a remedy that will stop this distress in a few minutes—quicker than anything else you can think of.

This is no common stomach remedy for it took years of time to combine Pepsin with the other effective agents that make Dare's Mentha-Pepsin so good that the worst cases of indigestion and gastritis and other chronic stomach ailments are speedily overcome and the most deranged stomachs are made clean, strong and healthy.

Mr. Calvin Dilks of Alloway, N. J., a man of few words, knows this for he writes: "I entirely rid myself of an old catarrhal condition of the stomach with Dare's Mentha-Pepsin."

No matter what your stomach trouble is get a bottle today at Sohn's Drug Store or Sayre and Hemphill or any druggist anywhere, with the distinct understanding that if it doesn't do you the world of good your money will be returned.—Adv.

GETTING SKINNIER EVERY DAY

Something Must Be Done and Done Right Now—Quick

Tens of thousands of thin, run-down men—yes, and women too—are getting discouraged—are giving up all hope of ever being able to take on flesh and look healthy and strong.

All such people can stop worrying and start to smile and enjoy life right now for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets which any druggist will tell you all about, is putting flesh on hosts of skinny folks every day.

One woman, tired, weak and discouraged, put on 15 pounds in five weeks and now feels fine.

We all know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitalizing, flesh producing vitamines, but many people can't take it because of its horrible smell and fishy taste and because it often upsets the stomach.

McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets are as easy to take as candy and if any thin person don't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to give you your money back—and only 60 cents for 60 tablets. Ask Sayre and Hemphill or any live pharmacist anywhere.

But be sure to get McCoy's, the original and genuine, and bear in mind that for thin, sickly kids, they are wonderful—a very sickly child—age 9, gained 12 pounds in 3 months.—Adv.

HE COUGHED FOR TWO YEARS SWORE OFF

After coughing for two years almost continuously a man of considerable means got thin and tired and worn out, made his will, and was ready to quit the big game of life.

A friend spoke to him about Bronchuline and now life to him is very sweet indeed.

That's the kind of a cough that is put out of business with amazing speed when the cougher is wise to Bronchuline.

Tough old coughs — persistent coughs—coughs that hang on and rob people of their sleep—those are the kind of coughs Bronchuline likes to tackle.

Many times such coughs linger after the Grippe or a heavy cold, and if you have one or know of anyone who has one keep Bronchuline in mind.

It isn't just a cheap sweet cough syrup—it's the best cough remedy—and the best is never cheap. Sayre and Hemphill and dealers everywhere can supply you.—Adv.

Pastors and the men and boys of the congregation are invited.

The Eureka Club will meet Friday March 12 at Mrs. Earl Foster's.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

EFFECTS OF HEREDITY

EXTENSIVE experiments with animal life have proven that training is sometimes transmitted to the offspring. Certain traits purposely developed in one generation of mice were seen to pass on into succeeding generations, although these latter had been placed in a different environment. These experiments, no doubt, were conducted to learn if a race of super-men and super-women is possible from eugenics and if human offspring inherit the superiorities of their parents.

Among human beings the proverb has it that fools will not learn in any other school than experience. But in School and Society, published recently, it is contended that children benefit by the training which their parents and grandparents had through the third and fourth generations. There is a brief report of the results of the examination of 1,000 representative gifted children, with the summarizing statement by the psychologist, Professor Terman, that children of so many superiorities could not have acquired them all through environment influences alone. Not only are these children themselves superior but their heredity is also "demonstrably superior," and the intimation is that the training of their parents was a factor in this legacy of superiority.

The law of the mice, if it is a law, seemingly does not carry to men. While the plans of both mice and men gang aft-a-gley, the inference to be drawn from these scientific studies of a thousand school children, selected from a million, is that human parents who develop their own powers by training are likely to help their children incidentally in making their way more successfully through the increasingly intricate maze of existence.

AN OVERSEAS PRESS AGENT

THE MAN who spoke these words, John St. Zoe Strachey, was for years editor of the London Spectator. He has lately been on this side visiting old friends, renewing or correcting old impressions.

Hear his testimony:

I don't care what people say about crime statistics, racial difficulties, the negro problem, the Jewish problem or the Ku Klux Klan problem, because I know America is safe. It is a Nation of Home-Makers. America is absolutely sound and there is no danger whatever. Americans are the most kindly, the most helpful and the most courteous race of people on the face of the earth.

Those words were spoken in London to Englishmen most of all. That testimony of a competent observer was unsolicited, spontaneous, honest.

Those who know Strachey know that he is not given to "taffy." Dealing in sugar is not a habit of the Strachey family. Read that Queen Victoria book and be convinced.

But, allowing for the natural desire to say something nice after a pleasant visit there is much that is true, much that is basic in these observations, says the Herald-Post. As long as America is a land of homes, as long as she can be said to be sound below a ruffled surface, those who despair will have the worst of the argument.

THE MODERN GIRL

THOSE who have observed that the average girl today is healthy, pretty and trained to work require no defense of the modern young woman. Still there are some who, misled by the excess of talk about flappers, have the notion that the average of the girls of today is not as high as in former times.

The girls of today probably do more work than those of any other time, for the reason that the modern world has brought more occupations suitable to them. Nor are all those called flappers to be thought of as light, flippant creatures; certainly not as being immoral. Of course there are extremes among them, as in all classes and in all periods. But not class should be judged as a whole by the few in it who may be unfortunate. However, the worst flappers of today could not possibly be inveighed against more severely than were their sisters of ancient times.

Cato the Censor had his troubles with them, and the Bible also has many commentaries on their dress and conduct. What modern flapper could act in a more flippant manner than the daughters of Zion described in the sixteenth verse of the third chapter of Isaiah; daughters who were haughty, and walked with stretch-forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they went, and making a tinkling with their feet? The rest of the chapter also has much to say of their dress. In all ages there have been extremes just as today.

ACHIEVEMENT

I may not have the strength to climb
The heights of glory or the skill
To weave a deathless song or rhyme,
But I can play the man, and will.
I cannot pass beyond my best,
Beyond my strength I cannot go,
But I can meet a simpler test—
I need not hate or malice show.
I can be friendly and be kind,
For that great gifts are not required.
To leave glad memories behind,
One does not have to be inspired.

I can without resentment face
The disappointments of the day
And add some little touch of grace
To mark the paths I loved to stray.

This privilege God gives us all
From birth until our struggles end:
Whether our tasks be great or small,
To play the neighbor and the friend.

CROCHETED DISH MAT

We seldom ask for recipes or directions of any sort in our column without receiving them from some kind Reader-Friend, do we? Several weeks ago one of our readers asked for directions for a crocheted hot-dish mat for the dining table. Today's mail brought the following from an anonymous housekeeper:

"Crocheted Mat for Hot Dishes: Chain seven and join.

Row one: Ch. 3, 25 Tr. in ring. Join to top of three Ch.

Row Two: Ch. 5.,* miss one, Tr. in next, Ch. 2; repeat around, joining to third of five Ch., 13 sp. in all.

Row Three: Two Tr. (Ch. three for first Tr.) in each Tr., two Ch. between groups; join last two Ch. to top of three Ch. always.

Row Four: Treble in first Tr., two in next, Ch. two, repeat around, join.

Row Five: Treble in each Tr., with two in last, Ch. two; repeat, join.

Rows Six, Seven, Eight and Nine: Same as Fifth Row, increasing Tr. in each point, every row. (For a larger mat, just increasing till desired size.)

Row Ten: Seven Tr. in seven Tr., chain two, Tr. in Sp. of two Ch., Ch. two, repeat around, join.

Rows Eleven, 12, 13, 14 and 15: Same as the Tenth Row decreasing each point, One Tr., and increasing one Sp. between points every row.

Row Sixteen: Treble in first of two Tr. (Ch. two, tr. in Sp.) seven times, Ch. two, repeat around, join.

Rows 17, 18, 19, 20, and 21: Space all around and join.

To make edge:

Fasten in the Nineteenth Row, two Tr. in Sp., Ch. four, fasten in first stitch of chain for picot, two Tr. in same Sp., a Double Crochet in next Sp., repeat around.

There will be rows to put under the mat. This holds them on tight."

SIDELIGHTS ON Greene County History

THE SHERIFF

Office of county sheriff is directly concerned with the enforcement of the law, and in the course of the 114 years of its existence, Greene County sheriffs have handled scores of desperate criminals.

Duties of the sheriff were particularly dangerous during the early history of the county when the jails were only improvised structures and some criminals escaped. County commissioners' records show several orders for repairs of breaks in the county bastile resulting from the successful attempt of a prisoner to escape.

In addition to his duties in maintaining the peace and in apprehending law violators, the sheriff in the early days was the collector of taxes.

First record book of the minutes of Common Pleas Court contains an order for the clerk to turn over to Nathan Lamme, Greene County's first sheriff, the tax lists.

Since silver specie was scarce in those days and as the tax bill of any person seldom failed to have a fractional cent included, Mexican dollars then in circulation had to be cut.

The sheriff, in starting to the neighborhood from which he intended to collect the tax, carried in the saddle on his horse, a hammer and cold chisel to cut the specie of larger denominations into the requisite size. Tenure of the office of the sheriff is two years.

Names of those who have served the county in this capacity follow: Nathan Lamme, 1803-05; William Maxwell, 1805-'07; James Collier, 1807-'14; John Hiviling, 1814-'15; James Popenoe, 1815-'19; John Smith, 1819-'24; James Popenoe, 1824-'30; James A. Wilkins, 1850-'54; Daniel Lewis, 1854-'58; Samuel Crumbaugh, 1858-'62.

RARE PEOPLE

Every once in a while—often only after 10 or 20 years—you run across somebody whom you can't explain, somebody whom you just like and know you like, but don't know why.

Rare—very. But what an event!

I have never liked explaining people. I always feel that they are apt to forget to explain some things that later I might discover to their disadvantage, and then I would be disappointed. And I don't like to be disappointed in people.

But if they are of this rare type, I can forgive much—because they never ask me to forgive anything!

When you read the lives and works of such people as Poe, Hudson, Bayard, Shelley, Byron, and many others who died bathed in their own tears of disappointment, you feel that a kind of warmth glows in your heart. You feel that you are associating with those who loathed pity, but who craved understanding and sympathy and appreciation. Rare people.

We need the press and warmth of hands in this world. Just handclasps—without words. There are enough hands, God knows, without the clasp.

You can walk a long way, a be a long time with a rare person and feel that time has be a record in speed—though hours and hours have elapsed.

Mothers are rare people. Often a mere boy or girl is. Often a rough, unlettered man.

Rare people are well worth hunting for and tying to. To be attracted to a rare person, in the first place, is a compliment to your worth and ability. In fact, it takes a rare person to be attracted to a rare person.

So, be rare—if you know how.

MODISH MITZI—This Took Will Power—But Whose? By JAY V. JAY

One of the chief things Mitzi is working her newly discovered will power on is the buying of new clothes. Still, she can look at them and since she has a card for the opening of a new and extremely smart shop she thinks it will certainly hurt no one if she stops in for a minute.

Mitzi and the model (in the first sketch) show you two of the cape-costumes of the season. This young woman is exhibiting quite successfully the spring suit made to look like a man's dinner jacket. It is of navy blue serge, and is worn with a frilled white silk blouse.

Mitzi admires the brocade evening gown, with the low back and high front neckline, and is converted to the cause of the one-piece frock trimmed with scallops of braid. Besides, she is still thinking of that suit. "Why, Mitzi," exclaims Polly, arriving from nowhere, "you're not buying clothes!"

"Of course not," says Mitzi; "can't I look at them without buying any?" The answer to that is usually no, but Polly does n't make it—she only guides Mitzi out of the alluring place and suggests that it's time for them to study the fifth, or is it fifteenth, lesson on Will Power.

ROBINS OPTIMISTS FARRELL FINDS IN TALK WITH PLAYERS

By HENRY L. FARRELL

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 10. —There are no hands of welcome for any one who comes to the Brooklyn ball park with a long face and words of sympathy.

"Where do you fellows get that stuff that we are out of the race? Look at that bunch hustling. They are not holding their heads down, are they?" Wilbert Robinson, president manager of the club, has been saying to the critics.

The Brooklyn players are not youngsters, but their hustle is the first thing observed at their training camp.

It is rather an unusual sight to see veterans like Zach Wheat, Josck Fournier, "Rabbit" Maranville and Burleigh Grimes cutting up like college boys but they are doing it.

Robinson is particularly fond of his pitching staff. He thinks it is the strongest and best balanced corps he has ever tutored and it will be recalled he always has been strong on pitching.

Dazzy Vance, Burleigh Grimes, Tiny Osborne, Harry Courtney and Rube Ehrhardt remain from last season and Jess Barnes, Doug McWeenery, George Boehler and Bob McGraw are newcomers.

McWeenery and McGraw had chances before in the major leagues and lack of control caused them to trip back to the miners, but Robby is use now that they are ready for a real comeback.

The obstinacy of Milton Stock in holding back for more pay has made indefinite plans for the infield. Jack Fournier, of course, will play first base and Robbie would like to have Stock for duty along with Rabbit Maranville, at short and Johnny Butler, a high priced rookie from the American Association at third. Butler is not in the best of shape as he reported with stomach trouble but the club doctor hopes to have him ready.

If Stock falls to report, Robinson may have to use Jerry Standaert, a youngster.

Whitey Witt, former Yankee center fielder, Zach Wheat, former captain of the team and Dick Cox will be used as regulars in the outfield.

For reserve duty the club will have Merwin Jacobson who came up from the International League and Felix, formerly with the Boston Braves.

VAPORS reach a cold directly because they are breathed right into the air passages and lungs. It is for this reason that Vicks VapoRub brings such quick relief. When rubbed over throat and chest at bedtime:—

It is vaporized by the body heat and inhaled, while you sleep, right to the affected parts, loosening the phlegm and easing the difficult breathing.

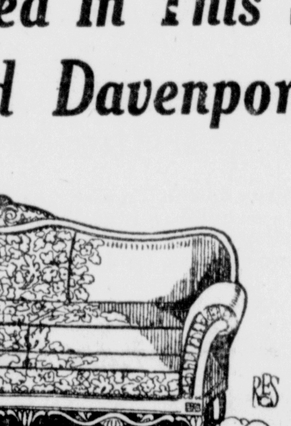

At the same time it acts through the skin (like a poultice or plaster) "drawing out" the pain and soreness.

Most colds yield by morning to this double action of Vicks.

GEORGE H. ECKERLE AND HELEN DODDS TO SEEK COUNTY OFFICES

With the political pot already beginning to bubble, citizens with aspirations for public office are already announcing their intention of becoming candidates for the various county offices at the August primary in Greene County.

Vacancies will exist in the county auditor's office, treasurer's office, recorder's office, clerk's office, for county commissioner, prosecutor, sheriff, Common Pleas judge, state senator and representative.

Public office holders who have definitely announced their candidacies for re-election include Harvey Elam for clerk of courts, B. F. Thomas for recorder, Herman Eavey for commissioner, J. C. Marshall for prosecutor, and L. T. Marshall for state senator.

Only one candidate so far is in the field for county treasurer. Miss Helen Dodds, for the past five years clerk in the treasurer's office, is announcing her formal candidacy for treasurer.

Miss Dodds served as Greene County chairman of the Republican women's organization in the 1924 presidential campaign and is also a member of the Xenia Business and Professional Women's Club.

Having served two terms as treasurer, Frank A. Jackson is not eligible under the law for a third term and will not again seek public office this year, he announced.

Sheriff Morris Sharp, whose second term expires this year, is also ineligible for re-election but is being talked of as a candidate for treasurer. The sheriff has not definitely decided to enter the race.

Deputy Sheriff John Baughn announced his candidacy for sheriff Thursday and is the only entrant in sight. He is completing a service of four years as deputy sheriff and for a time served as acting sheriff. He is a Republican.

R. O. Wead will probably seek re-election, he said, but will have opposition with the formal announcement by George H. Eckerle, of the Eckerle Printing Co., of his intention of becoming a candidate for auditor in August.

With the expiration of his term of six years as Common Pleas Court judge this year, R. L. Gowdy will probably seek re-election at the November election, it is believed certain. Judge Gowdy is in Cleveland and confirmation could not be obtained.

R. D. Williamson, Greene County's representative in the state legislature, will in all probablitiy seek a second term in August, it is believed.

Only one vacancy exists on the board of County Commissioners. Commissioners J. H. Lackey and A. E. Beam have two more years to serve. W. J. Davis, county surveyor, will continue in office for nearly two more years under the Ohio law. No election for judge of Probate Court will be held for two years.

PAINTERS GATHER AT ANNUAL MEETINGS

Nearly thirty men employed at the painting trade in Xenia and parts of Greene County held their third annual "get-together" meeting at the Babb hardware store, S. Detroit St., Wednesday evening.

Problems confronting the painters, possible solutions and various other topics were discussed at the meeting. New and modern forms of interior decorative work were also taken up and considered. Refreshments were served.

Deep Sea Water Helps Weak Folks Gain Vigor and Health

Ocean-O is deep sea water distilled and concentrated and in every bottle of this natural health builder you will find the mineral elements that are found in pure, healthy blood.

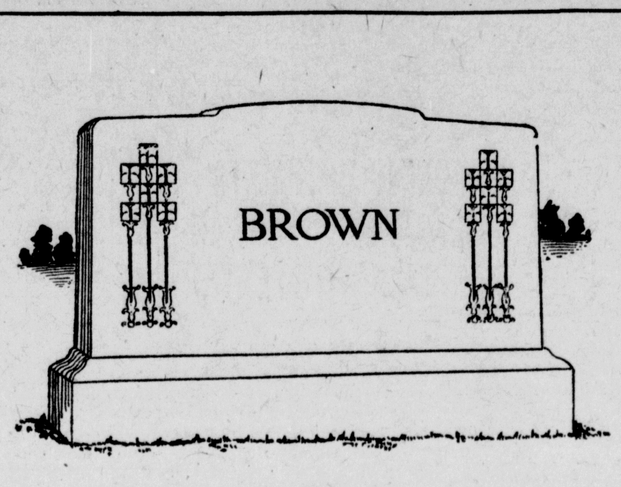

When you are anaemic, run-down—are nervous and can't get restful sleep—it is probably because your blood needs one or more of the vitalizing elements that Ocean-O contains.

These alkaline mineral elements which modern food has ceased to supply to the blood are the cause of many ailments that lessen your vitality—keep your vigor below par and cause much anxiety to your family and friends.

Besides being a powerful upbuilding agent for the whole system it is a splendid tonic laxative; is fine for gastritis and to improve digestion and is especially valuable where there is faulty nutrition.

Ocean-O, full of life-giving mineral elements, acts thru the blood, As soon as it gets into the blood stream it carries to every organ, gland and nerve in the body a rich supply of just the elements needed to create anew the fullest measure of vitality and health.

You can get a 10 ounce bottle of Ocean-O from Sayre and Hemphill or any druggist with the distinct understanding that if it doesn't help you wonderfully your money will be returned. As Ocean-O is concentrated and a regular dose is one teaspoonful to one tablespoonful in half a glass of water, a bottle lasts a long time. —Adv.

ALWAYS YOUNG

THIS IS FANNY WARD, vacationing in Florida. She is a grandmother, has been a musical comedy favorite for nearly two decades, is nearing her sixtieth birthday, and yet has the youthful appearance of a woman half her age. She attributes the secret of youth and beauty to the fact that she had adopted a theory of graceful repose of both face and body. Distorted motions cause wrinkles and ugliness, she says.

HELP YOURSELF TO HEALTH

W. K. Kellogg

This thing will dull the brightest "star"

YOU probably know this story, or one amazingly like it. It deals with a young man who started out "with everything"—who made brilliant progress for a time—became a "star"—had his little hour . . . and then faded. . . . What vicious thing can so transform a man? Can make a strong heart weak? An energetic body spineless? . . .

Constipation ruins so many promising persons—a dread disease which saps life and strength. The fortunate fact about constipation is that it can be conquered—surely, safely, permanently. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the answer!

As Kellogg's ALL-BRAN journeys through the system, its fiber remains unchanged. Doctors call ALL-BRAN a bulk food. You know the importance of "bulk" in diet. Its delightful nutty flavor makes it good as a cereal. Serve with milk or cream, or with fresh or preserved fruit; sprinkle over other cereals or cook with hot cereals; use in soups or make into the many recipes given on the package. If eaten regularly, ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or money refunded. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

Be sure to get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. A part-bran product can, at best, be but partially effective. Kellogg's is the original, genuine 100% ALL-BRAN. Doctors recommend it. All grocers sell it. Leading hotels and restaurants serve it.

Here is sure relief for Constipation

You cannot be well and happy and be constipated—that is certain. Headache, dullness, sallow complexion, sickness and operations are caused by carelessness and our modern way of living. No laxative is effective that does not act on the entire bowel system. Just the emptying of the lower bowel does not give best results. The new accepted way is by taking KLOK-LAX tabules at 9 at night. KLOK-LAX thoroughly cleans the entire bowel system. Your druggist will guarantee KLOK-LAX—in the "gold and black" box—18 tabules thirty-five cents.

KLOK-LAX "acts on time"

Gives Advice to Expectant Mothers

"I ADVISE all expectant mothers to use Mother's Friend," writes Mrs. Wesley Miller, Hudson, Mich. "I have had nine children. With my first three I suffered for 24 hours. Beginning with the fourth I used Mother's Friend and was sick only 15 minutes. Since then I have had five and was only sick about 10 minutes with each."

Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician and has been a positive blessing to thousands of expectant mothers for over three generations. Used daily, externally, it soothes the nerves and muscles as month follows month. Finally it makes childbirth a joy!

The mothers who praise Mother's Friend the most are those who did not use it with their first baby but through its use with the second, were able to realize its almost unbelievable results.

Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and meanwhile write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 34, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists everywhere.

AMERICAN RUBBER PLANTING IN LIBERIA WILL FAIL SAY BRITISH

SINGAPORE, Mar. 11.—The efforts of American manufacturers to enter the rubber growing business in Liberia, meet with derision by veteran rubber men of the East.

The American efforts are doomed to meet with failure, in the British view, for several reasons, principally these:

1. An experienced personnel and an adequate supply of good labor cannot be maintained in Liberia.

2. Estates can only be developed at prohibitive costs.

3. Even if large estates are planted it will be five or six years before any appreciable supply of rubber can be obtained.

Rubber growers in Malaysia figure five years as the minimum time to get a rubber estate in production. At least a year is necessary to clear jungle and plant. Another four years must pass before the rubber tree is ready for tapping.

The British have hundreds of big estates already in production. They have all the equipment and land necessary to enlarge these estates to any degree required by consumption. They have a great personnel of trained rubber men and have perfected all the elaborate commercial equipment—banking, shipping, handling and curing of latex, grading, reconditions etc—in working order. They do not fear competittion.

American complaints at high rubber prices have called forth a series of somewhat bitter editorials in the British Malaysian press.

"Taken in the bunch," says the Straits Times, the chief organ of the rubber interests, "the rubber magnates of the States are not by any means as far sighted as they ought to be. In 1921 they could easily have made restriction unnecessary. If they had come to the plantation owners and offered to pay even a shilling a pound for rubber in order to keep the industry on its legs, we would all have been content to struggle on until better times came.

"But they were so eager to profit by our misfortune that they were delighted to see the price fall as low as seven pence. It seemd good business to get their rubber at less than cost price and they made big profits while we made big losses. Then we got a grip of the situation (through limiting production), but we never tried for more than a fair price."

For the next 10 years, the Times confidently predicts, Britain will remain supreme in world rubber production and America will continue to pay.

"The Americans have not faced up to the simple realities," it continues: "They made restriction a necessity. Then they raged against it. And because we are recovering our losses they are scheming to become independent of our sources of supply. They have been big customers but never friendly ones. We owe them nothing and must simply take all we can from them while we have the power."

Feel Splendid! Nicest Laxative, "Cascarets" 10c

Don't stay headachy, dizzy, bilious, constipated, sick!

One or two pleasant candy-like "Cascarets" taken any time will mildly stimulate your liver and start your bowels. Then you will both look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed. Your head will be clear, stomach sweet, tongue pink and your skin rosy.

Because "Cascarets" never gripe or sicken, it has become the largest selling laxative in the world.

Letters and Questions About Health

By Dr. Lewis Baker and Associates

An Advertisement Informing The Public In a Common-sense Manner How To Distinguish The Simpler Ailments And Symptoms, And the Right Remedies for Treatment. Each Medicine Possesses The Highest Qualities For The Purpose Intended.

Sometimes, small crystals form in the tubules of the kidneys, creating irritation and producing the sensation of "Backache." Often these crystals are formed in the bladder, producing pains and irritation very annoying to the person. The imperfect secretion of the urinary product also accounts for burning, stinging sensations while frequent calls at night disturb the sleep and rest, required to renew energy. Elderly persons often have to arise from three to a dozen times to get a temporary relief from such distress.

For such trouble I recommend a compound of diuretic, soothing, sedative agents, Balmwort Tablets which act promptly in almost every case, producing a normal flow with comfort, strength and a general feeling of well being.

• • •

R. B. J. writes: "I have a trembling of the nerves and a 'shaky' sensation in arms and legs which annoys me greatly. I am in a nervous, run-down state, with poor appetite. Don't sleep well and am both weak and easily irritated all the time."

Answer: If constipation is one source of your trouble, take Sulpherb tablets as a liver and bowel tonic, while taking Cadomene tablets as a tonic for the blood and nerves. They may be taken at the same time.

• • •

Mrs. A. C. writes: "My two children have been out of school for two weeks because of a severe cold and cough. Nothing we have used has seemed to help them and I write for advice."

Answer: Obtain essence Mentho-Laxene and dilute it with sugar syrup or honey. Give this to your children every hour or two. This is being used by thousands of mothers, because it is quickly effective and contains no opiates, chloroform, or narcotics to upset the little stomachs.

• • •

R. L. J. writes: "I am suffering with terrible rheumatism pain and want a safe relief without morphine or kindred drugs."

Answer: Ask druggist for 5-grain Su-thol tablets (pronounced soothe-all). Contain no opiates or narcotics, but act quickly in relieving pain, headache, etc.

• • •

Answer to Miss B. C.: Perspiration odors, armpit odors, foot odors, are readily banished and prevented by the regular use of medicated Chex soap for toilet and bath. It has elusive fragrance, but no medical odor, is beautifying to the skin because of its high quality and unusual medication.

• • •

Answer to A. R.: For nasal catarrh apply Mentho-Laxene Salve in nostrils morning and night. This salve is useful in preventing colds in the head and should have a place in every home.

Note: Dr. Lewis Baker, Medical Director of The Blackburn Products Co., 312 College Bldg. Dayton, Ohio, will send his valuable guide to Health and Beauty, to any address upon receipt of 10cts. Coin. The trustworthy medicines advised, can be obtained of all leading druggists.

Dr. Baker is known to millions, and the esteem in which he is held is evidenced by the scores of grateful letters received daily, similar to the following:

Sulpherb Drives Pimples Away

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Master Isadore Zlinsky, 1 Rogers St., writes: "I am writing of the benefits I received from using Sulpherb Tablets, and I recommend them to all who suffer from pimples (acne) boils, constipation, etc. In the last two years my face was badly covered with pimples and my blood was poor. I read about Sulpherb and when I had finished the second box my pimples had disappeared entirely. I ate better and seemed to be getting along wonderfully, etc."

Nasal Catarrh Benefited

PATERSON, N. J., Mrs. A. Zimlingham, 547 E. 23rd St., writes: "The children and myself are using Mentho-Laxene Salve for nasal catarrh and we breathe much more freely, etc."

• • •

Common Trouble Corrected

NEWARK, N. J., Mrs. J. E. White, 24 Chestnut St., writes: "I am a woman over forty. Was troubled with a scant flow of urine. After taking two large boxes of Balmwort Tablets the flow became normal, as it should and I feel very much benefited and wish to recommend it, etc."

• • •

"Night" Coughing Gone

CHICAGO, ILL., Mrs. Joseph Balaboa, 55 W. Ohio St., writes: "My husband and baby had a choking cough that nothing we could find helped, and I was in despair for want of sleep. One bottle of Mentho-Laxene—it's not all gone, but the coughs are, and for the first time in weeks we all sleep. I was bothered with constipation until I used the Cascа-Royal Pills, and now I am regular every day. These products will always have a regular place in our medicine chest, etc."

• • •

Tonic-Medicine Brought Strength

NEW YORK CITY, Mr. E. Prete, 119 W. 15th St., writes: "I am 33 years old and married. Working as a waiter and for a long time suffering indigestion, I became all run down. After using Cadomene tablets, I can be on my feet 12 hours, go home and feel like enjoying life. Before I took Cadomene tablets I would be all in and could not even talk to my wife. Now my wife tells me I look like a young man again and full of pep, etc."

Chex Soap—"Above Any"

WACO, TEXAS: A Physician endorses Chex as follows: "We find Chex to be a high grade toilet and deodorant soap and think no better could be made. By test it is far above any we have ever used, etc."

THE BLACKBURN PRODUCTS CO., Dayton, Ohio.

OHIO IS INCLUDED IN ORGANIZATION BELT OF AMERICA

Besides being in the corn belt, Ohio is in the farm organization belt of the United States, a survey completed by the Federal Department of Agriculture shows.

More than 12,000 farmers' business organizations are now active in the United States, the survey found, and 70 per cent of them are in the twelve north central states, which group includes Ohio.

This total of farmers' business organizations is more than twice that of 1915. The federal department's figures include associations selling farm products or buying farm supplies, operating creameries, cheese factories, canning plants, grain elevators, stockyards, warehouses, or rendering some one or more of the essential services connected with the conduct of farmer' enterprises.

The figures do not include, the department makes plain, farmers' co-operative banks, credit associations, nor insurance companies.

Fifty-four of the associations listed are federations with local units, forty-nine are sales agencies operating in central markets, thirty-five are bargaining associations, and ninety-eight are large-scale organizations of the centralized type. Of the total, 3,325 are engaged in marketing grain, 2,197 handle dairy products, 1,770 ship livestock, 1,250 market fruits and vegetables, 121 help with the marketing of cotton, ninety-one in marketing wool, seventy-one in marketing poultry or poultry products and twenty-four in marketing tobacco.

The largest number of associations reporting from any one state is 1,383 from Minnesota.

MONSTER DIRIGIBLE CARRYING PLANE WILL BE CONSTRUCTED

AKRON, O., Mar. 8.—A gigantic warship of the air, practically double the size of the Shenandoah and the Los Angeles, designed to carry four to six combat airplanes, will soon be constructed here according to the announcement of Goodyear-Zepplin Corporation officials.

Blue print plans for the new air monster were worked out in cooperation with Rear Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics.

Improved and modernized structural details together with many new general features is expected to make the contemplated airship the strongest and fastest aircraft ever constructed.

To make possible the building of the control cabin and all the power-car units inside the ship itself, triple keels will be utilized, extending throughout the entire length, thus assuring greater sturdiness to the ship's hull. The designers regard this as a vital factor to remove the possibility of loss of an engine car or control while flying and at the same time to eliminate considerable air resistance, adding, naturally, to the speed of the airship.

If the control car of the Shenandoah had not broken free from the rest of the ship, probably the great loss of lives would not have occurred, it is said. The present designers have profited from the Shenandoah's experience in this regard.

A new type of tilting propellers, developed recently, will be used. They can be turned downward when the ship commander desires additional vertical lifting strength, and reversed when the ship is in a lightened condition to drive downward without valving or shutting off the helium gas. This feature will make possible additional maneuvering ability.

The gas bag will be 790 feet long and 135 feet in diameter. The gas capacity will be about 6,500,000 cubic feet, more than twice the volume of either the Los Angeles or Shenandoah.

Motors capable of 4800 horsepower will give the ship a maximum speed of 90 miles an hour, a cruising speed of 80 miles an hour, and a range at this speed, under average flying conditions carrying a full military load of guns and airplanes of more than 5,000 miles.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

Women Need a Mild Laxative -Not a "Physic"

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he constantly advised mothers to give only a harmless laxative which would help to establish natural bowel "regularity."

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin mothers have a regulating laxative which they can depend upon whenever a child is constipated, bilious, feverish or sick from a cold, indigestion or sour stomach. All children love its pleasant taste.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine and just see for yourself how perfectly it cleanses and regulates the bowels of infants and children.—Adv.

"Not Possible To Classify" By Mack Sauer

A few jottings of the day by Samuel Pepys, Jr.: Put off my knee lengths and into my red flannels. Then to work. Froze nearly, the wind mighty nippy and stronger than to my liking. Caught up with a merry chap who was of a mind to walk by my side and chat with me, but I left him and went by way of another street, I being too cold to even tal.

Met a chap who plans to run for county office, and to listen to him relate his virtues was a task, indeed. And of a truth I never heard so much vanity in my life, so, being weary of him, we parted, I deciding how I would vote for at least one man the next primary, it being the man who is running against my proud friend.

To my great surprise came an offer for my gasoline buggy, which is a wreck and ready to fall apart, almost, it doth appear, but which gave such a good running that my buyer bargained for it, and happy he was to deal with me. So out to see my friend Horace Prince, to see if he could sell me a bicycle or no for what I got for the car, and looked also for one for my wife.

The latest fad among the girls is to wear smock over the dresses in the offices, which may be serviceable, yet look like dresses far too big for them, and methought one girl was wearing her mother's dress, when I saw her. But what could be more foolish and out of reason than for young saplings to wear navy pants. A practice that is going far.

In the late evening to watch the firemen fight flames and much praise on all sides for the work of the fighters. Through the crowd to tell Chief Claire how good are his men, and stepped in water to my knee, the crowd laughing at me, so sneaked home and to bed without my wife seeing me, thus saving a bathing in Vick's Salve and other remedies. And so late to bed with prayers.

ILLUSTRATES TALK BEFORE BOY SCOUTS

Steropticon slides and motion pictures of sports among the wilds were shown by Professor Edwin Zavitz, Antioch College, at the meeting held by Xenia Boy Scout Troops, in American Legion Headquarters, Kingsburg Building, Wednesday night.

Professor Zavitz has charge of a boys' camp at Cass Lake, Minne., eight weeks each summer and had obtained many interesting views of the camp, surrounding country and various sports of interest to boys.

Two boxing bouts preceded the address, staged by Ronald Bice, Donald Stevens, "flyweights;" Richard Maddox and "Doc" Lorimer, light heavyweights. Stevens won the first decision and Lorimer the second.

Prizes in the ticket selling contest for the benefit "movie" held by the Scouts recently, were won by Edward Bath, Ronald Bice and John Perrill.

Big turn-out of boys and Scout leaders featured the meeting.

TWO HOMES MADE HAPPY

By Women Who Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I think it is the most wonderful medicine I ever tried," is the statement made by Mrs. Goldie Shoup of May View, Illinois. She declares that after taking the Compound she is in better health than before.

Mrs. J. Storms of 29 Lane Street, Paterson, N. J., writes: "I can not speak too highly of your medicine and I recommend it to all my friends."

These statements were taken from two enthusiastic letters which tell of the help that has been received from using the Vegetable Compound. Both Mrs. Shoup and Mrs. Storms were in a run-down condition which caused them much unhappiness. When women are suffering from lack of strength and from weakness, their own life and that of their family is affected. When they feel well and strong and are able to do their housework easily, happy homes are the result.

Are you on the Sunlit Road to Better Health?

MULLINS CASE WILL BE HEARD FRIDAY

Theodore Mullins, 17, of near Osborn, will be given a hearing before R. O. Copsey, justice of the peace, on a charge of illegal possession of liquor Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Warrant containing the charges upon which Mullins was arrested was filed by John Powell, state prohibition enforcement officer. He pleaded not guilty when arraigned.

Mullins entered the spotlight several weeks ago when he preferred charges of shooting with intent to wound against Constables J. W. Sidwell and Earl Severs, Van Buren Twp., Montgomery County, and J. E. Watts, state prohibition inspector, as the echo of a raid on the Mullins' home in Osborn in February.

The trio conducted the raid and Mullins charges he was fired upon thirteen times, two shots striking his arm. The dry raiders each pleaded not guilty to the allegations and are held to the grand jury.

BRINGING UP FATHER — BY GEORGE McMANUS

FARMS, LIKE BANKS MUST HAVE CAPITAL RECORDS INDICATE

It takes as much capital to run a 125 acre farm in Ohio as it does to run a small country bank

On twenty one Putnam County farms, averaging 125 acres in size, the total investment averages $25,000 a farm, with the range from $13,000 to $50,000.

These figures come from the farm accounts kept by this Putnam County group in co-operation with rural economists at the Ohio State University and the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

"More than eighty per cent of the investment," explains J. F. Dowler, one of the economists, "is in land and buildings. The rest is working capital. After the land and buildings are acquired it is the efficiency with which the working capital is used that largely determines the farm income."

An average of forty four per cent of the working capital, or $16 an acre is invested in livestock on these Putnam County farms. This item varies from twenty to sixty two per cent on the twenty one farms studied, and illustrates the range from a typical grain farm to a typical livestock farm.

Farm machinery and equipment comprise the next largest group, thirty per cent of the working capital. The farm value of this machinery now is $11 an acre. Its replacement value, however, would be twice that sum.

The rest of the working capital, twenty-six per cent, includes the inventories of farm produce, purchased feeds, seeds, and other supplies.

IS EVERY DAY A BACKACHE DAY?

Xenia Folks Have Found the Cause and Corrected It.

Is your back lame and achy? Are you tortured with sharp, rheumatic pains; miserable with headaches, dizzy spells and kidney irregularities? No wonder then, you feel worn-out and discouraged. But have you given any thought to your kidneys? You should! Weak kidneys cause just such troubles. Don't risk neglect! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Here's a Xenia case.

J. F. Mellage, shoemaker, 426 W. Second St., says: "My back ached constantly and every time I stooped, I got a stab of pain through it. When I bent, it was hard to straighten, my back was so knotted up. Mornings I dreaded to get up, I was so stiff and lame. I had to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Pills relieved the backache and my kidneys again became normal."

END ECZEMA TORTURES FOREVER

No Need to Suffer Another Day

There is one simple yet inexpensive way to stop the itching and torture of Eczema instantly, and that is to apply Moone's Emerald Oil night and morning and people who suffer from any embarrassing or disfiguring skin trouble would be wise to banish it before it reaches a more or less chronic stage.

Ask Sayre and Hemphill or any first-class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces last a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not give you complete satisfaction you can have your money refunded.

Special note: People who want to reduce swollen or varicose veins should get a bottle of Emerald Oil at once. Applied night and morning as directed they will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.—Adv.

The Theatre

Palaces of white marble and pink and ochre stucco sprawling over foothills----Twelve room servants' houses----heated swimming pools----acres of planted tropical forest and garden----fifteen car garages halfway down the hillside.

These are Adele Whitely Fletcher's impressions of Hollywood, gained through a recent visit.

"If you want something resembling an honest picture of Hollywood, picture the wealthiest suburb you know and multiply its attractions a hundred times. Then a hundred times again," says Mrs. Fletcher.

"It is a gay place, a Mardi Gras of youth and gold and beauty. The pity of life is that wealth is rarely earned until age has stolen away enthusiasms and imagination; the very things which make gold infinitely more than a heavy weight in the pocket.

"Out there beautiful girls of twenty are wealthy. Young men just beginning to boast of a fuzz on their upper lip are on the Utopian road to financial security.

"This generation of movie stars profited by the example of those who went before them. They have seen favorites of yesterday waiting humbly in lines that formed outside a casting director's window. They have watched others whose names once electrified the night, lie ill and worried as age and poverty marched hand in hand, to meet them.

"Great sums of money are squandered. And why not? It is a unique place. Nowhere else in this world is Youth so lavishly enthroned. And nowhere else in this world is Youth so conscious of Age's ghostly figure creeping up behind it."

The New Yorker tells of the experience of Craig Biddle, scion of a wealthy and socially prominent family, during his brief career in the movies.

Biddle was instructed to do an entrance scene into the house. He came in, spoke smilingly to the servant who met him at the door, handed him his hat, coat and stick, and sauntered off the set in the best approved manner.

He didn't have to act anyway but natural for he'd been doing that sort of thing all his life. The director, however, was disgusted. He did it himself to show how it should be done. His nose in the air in a movie effort to show a haughty attitude, he passed his things to the butler without even deigning that individual a glance, sauntered to a mirror in the hall and combed his hair with a comb taken from his vest pocket.

"Don't get familiar with a servant," he explained. "Wealthy people always ignore their servants. And they always like to see that they're spic and span."

No wonder young Biddle gave up his attempt to get a foothold in the movies.

SECRETARY DAVIS MAY QUIT CABINET TO SEEK GOVERNORSHIP OF STATE

Coolidge Opposed to Plan Because He Has No One For Labor Post—Wet Candidate Will Oppose Pepper.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—A strange series of circumstances is involving President Coolidge, a member of his cabinet, "The Mellon" political power, a senator and the wet and dry fight in the ominous Pennsylvania primaries.

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis has asked Mr. Coolidge to permit him to run for governor to help the "Mellon" ticket headed by Senator George Wharton Pepper, the United Press was informed today, but Mr. Coolidge desires Davis to stay in the cabinet if possible.

The chief executive has no one in contemplation who would fill the labor post as he desires it filled. Since John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers became involved in the long coal strike, just closed, his availability has not been considered, Mr. Coolidge's friends think. Meantime Davis has not yet made up his mind whether he should run despite the president's mild objections.

A development which may make up his mind for him is the expected, announcement of the candidacy of Rep. Vare, Republican, Pennsylvania to run against Pepper in the primaries. Vare's platform will be soaking wet and the fight will offer the first test of sentiment following recent anti-prohobition polls.

Governor Pinchot is expected to help Vare's candidacy by entering and making it a three cornered race.

SAFETY DIRECTOR OF LORAIN OUSTED BY ORDER OF MAYOR

Official Answers Charges Made By Executive

By United Press

LORAIN, O., Mar. 11.—Henry George King, attorney and engineer appointed safety director last January as part of Mayor William F. Grail's annonced program of giving the city a business administration was today dismissed by the mayor.

Grail, in a letter to King, accused him of lack of co-operation and loyalty.

King stated that his refusal to carry out "illegal and unethical orders of the mayor" led to his dismissal. "The mayor wanted to use police force appointments to pay political debts" King said "and wanted me to suspend veteran members of the force to create vacancies. I knew the suspensions would not be upheld by the civil service commission and refused to make them."

During a previous administration Grall appointed four safety directors and dismissed three.

TWO PRISONERS ARE RETURNED TO CELLS

ATLANTA, Ga., Mar. 11.—After one day of freedom, two of the trio of convicts who escaped from a prison camp after a battle with their guards were back in their cells here today.

Raymond Sisson and Dave Perkins, the captured fugitives refused to discuss the mutiny that cost the lives of Pat Newsome, a guard and H. Davis, one of the six convicts who participated in the battle.

R. L. Travis, desperate gunman still is at liberty.

PRISONER SLAYS GUARD IN PRISON

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., Mar. 11.—Henry Jackson, negro, serving a life term at the penitentiary here today killed Earl Langfitt, 25, a prison guard, according to officials.

The guard had reprimanded Jackson for talking in the dining room, which is forbidden. When Langfitt turned his back, the negro drew a crude knife and stabbed him at the base of the brain.

FARMER SLAIN

MANCHESTER, O., Mar. 11.—A quarrel over the division of a tobacco crop was held responsible today for the killing of W. N. Lane, 60, wealthy farmer here. Lane was shot to death by Ross Campbell, 60, of Mays Lick, Ky., who surrendered after the shooting. Campbell pleaded self-defense.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR SETTLING FRANCE'S DEBT CONDUCTED

Mellon And Ambassador Berenger Carry On Discussions

By United Press

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Secret negotiations for settling France's $4,000,000,000 war debt to the United States are being carried on between Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and French Ambassador Berenger.

High treasury officials said today that Mellon and Berenger were holding "conferences" at frequent intervals to discuss funding of the huge obligation.

At these meetings it is hoped a tentative plan for settlement can be worked out and the final phases of the negotiations completed as soon as the Italian debt pact is ratified by Congress.

CALL WITNESSES FOR MURDER TRIAL

FREMONT, O., March 11—First subpoenas for witnesses in the trial of William Clark, 22, charged wit hmurder of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoffman, have been ordered issued in common pleas court. The trial will open before Judge Irving Carpenter, Norwalk, Monday. Summons were issued to twenty-four witnesses. These include Sheriff William Wirt and deputies, the several physicians who attended Hoffman, neighbors and others.

SENATOR FESS IS HEARD AT MEETING

United States Senator Simeon D. Fess, Yellow Springs, in an address before the Ohio Retail Dry Goods Association session in Columbus Wednesday night, urged funding of the Italian debt over a period of sixty-two years, with average interest of one and one-eighth per cent.

He attributed the fall of the French ministry and further decline in value of the French franc to unwillingness of France to settle her war debt to the United States on compatible terms. He also advocated American participation in a proposed conference to limit armaments, suggesting it be held in America "away from the European atmosphere charged with rivalries and jealousies, if not bitterness."

SALESMAN CHECKS GEM THEFT ATTEMPT

CANTON, O., Mar. 11.—A $200,000 diamond robbery was frustrated here by the presence of mind of George Hoenig, New York jewelry salesman.

Two thugs attacked Hoenig while he was displaying the diamonds to Jack Art, local jeweler and several customers in Art's store.

The thugs, among the customers in the store, stepped forward as Hoenig flashed the gems. One struck Hoenig with a blackjack. The other covered the salesman with a pistol and forced him into a rear room. Hoenig, catching the thugs off guard, kicked the wallet containing the gems under the safe in Art's store.

Frightened by screams of women customers the thugs fled to the street.

INQUIRIES FAIL TO FIND WHEREABOUTS OF JAMESTOWN MAN

Masons Aiding In Search —Affairs To Be Settled

Representatives of the Jamestown Masonic Lodge, who are making private inquiries concerning the disappearance of Daniel Lee Earley, 40, prominent Jamestown grain dealer, from his home Monday, were literally confronted with a blank wall Thursday.

Thought to have taken a train for Cincinnati, where his elder son was a student at a law school inquirers announce no attempt to communicate with authorities of that city has been made.

Lodge members are expected to hold a conference at Jamestown Thursday night in which different avenues of investigation may be considered.

Other reports in circulation are to the effect the search may be dropped with Earley's disappearance unsolved.

At the request of the family, Herbert Fisher, cashier of the Bowersville Bank, is taking steps to straighten out Earley's financial transactions and close up his books. Appointment of a receiver may be the next step.

Earley's entire property holdings including his grain elevators at Rosemoor, east of Jamestown, and at New Jasper, three miles from Xenia, are not sufficiently valuable to pay off all debts, it is said.

Unsecured claims of a number of farmers in the county for grain sold are said to amount to $4,000 or $5,000 while secured claims are reported to total at least $2,000.

Private investigation was at a standstill Thursday with no new developments reported.

ONE WAY TO TAG COLLEGIANS

COLUMBUS, Mar. 11—(UP)—Lost, strayed, or stolen collegiate boys may not be so common if a certain style shoe shown at the shoe dealers' convention last week, is generally adopted by the clientele of the seats of learning.

Perforations in the toe caps of the shoes are made in initial letters of schools, universities, and colleges.

Hereafter when police rescue an amnesia victim from the crossbar of a telephone pole who insists he's the reincarnation of Helen of Troy, all they'll have to do will be to examine the toes of the shoes and wire the designated knowledge foundry for instructions.

NATIONS WILL JOIN TO DEMAND REMOVAL OF CHANNEL MINES

Protest Obstructions Violate Treaty Of 1901

By United Press

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The United States government in agreement with the other protocol powers has decided to intervene forcibly in the Chinese situation unless China immediately removes mines from Taku channel and other obstructions to foreign shipping.

Unless China meets these demands which is considered probable, joint naval action by the United States and foreign Asiatic fleets to open Taku, Tien Tsin Harbor, is inevitable.

In a joint note to the Peking government and military commanders, made public by the state department here today the powers protested against such shipping obstruction as violation of the 1901 treaty and threatened "protective measures to be applied against either party without discrimination."

OHIO'S AUTOS WILL SOON BE WORTH ONE BILLION

COLUMBUS, O., March 11.—Two years hence, Ohio will have automobiles representing a cash outlay of $1,008,000,000 according to figures compiled today by the Hemple legislative committee.

The committee, preparing recommendations for the revision and modification of state highway laws, estimates there will be 1,800,000 automobiles in Ohio in 1928.

On the basis of this figure, the National Association of Automotive Engineers has figured $560 as the average cost of rmunning an automobile a year including interest and other items.

A multiplication of these figures, places the state's automobile outlay two years hence at $1,008,000,000.

BRIAND ARRIVES IN GENEVA TO GRAPPLE WITH SEAT PROBLEM

Work of Locarno Is Threatened By New Ruptures

By United Press

GENEVA, March 11 — Premier Briand arrived in Geneva today to grapple with the problem of League of Nations council seats which involves the possibility of failure for the work of Locarno and even a rupture within the league itself.

The league council is scheduled to meet at 4 p.m. for a showdown on the problem of council memberships. Briand began private conversations with members of the council as soon as he arrived.

The statement of Mallo Franco, the principal Brazilian delegate that he had been instructed to veto Germany's election to the council and then to withdraw from the League unless Brazil was given a permanent council seat greatly surprised and impressed the German delegation.

But even if the Germans should change their attitude against enlargement of the council, the situation would remain in menacing stalemate unless Sweden yields. The Swedish foreign minister, Unden, stands on his refusal to approve the election of Spain, Brazil or Poland as a matter of principle.

RICH SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT FOLLOWING ATTACK

Convicted of Assault On Young Girl—Will Appeal

By United Press

MASON, Mich., March 11.—Sentenced to life imprisonment Arthur Rich of Battle Creek, was to leave here today for Jackson State Prison to pay the penalty demanded by the state of Michigan for criminally assaulting Louise King, a Battle Creek College girl. The son of a wealthy steel products manufacturer was found guilty by a circuit court jury after twenty-five minutes deliberation following a bitterly contested twenty day re-trial.

Denying a stay of sentence, Judge Charles B. Collingwood briefly conferred with Rich in his private chambers, returned to the court and immediately imposed the maximum penalty possible under the laws of the state.

Rich was held to have brutally beaten the twenty-year-old girl wth his fists, fracturing her jaw bone in five places and then criminally assaulting her during a stroll on a Battle Creek golf course last May. He denied the attack, admitted he was drunk and asserted the girl was "helplessly intoxicated."

It is believed the case is certain to be appealed. A $100,000 civil damage suit pending against the convicted youth on the same charge will be pressed to a verdict despite outcome of the criminal trial, attorneys for Miss King announced.

CAN SPRING BE FAR BEHIND?

"Let's bring our jumping rope to school tomorrow!"

This remark, overheard while passing a group of youngsters on their way to school was taken as a sure harbinger of Spring.

Robins made their appearance several weeks ago along with other feathered heralds of fairer weather. Boys have been taking advantage of the soft earth these many days to dig their knuckles into the mud shooting marbles. But it was left to the small school lass to forecast the first approach of Spring.

STATE OWNERSHIP OF BRITISH COAL MINE BUSINESS OPPOSED

Miners And Operators Join In Protest Of Royal Report

By United Press

LONDON, March 11.—Miners and operators today protested against the Royal Coal Commissioner's report recommending national ownership and private operation of British coal mines.

The commission sought to prevent a general strike of railway men, transport workers and miners on May 1.

It is estimated that acquisition of proved and unproved coal deposits in Great Britain would cost the state $500,000,000.

Miners and operators join in protest against the recommendation that a government coal subsidy be withdrawn while the owners object to maintenance of the seven hour day and will ask revision of wage standard.

Both groups were busy today studying the voluminous report.

Owners and operators were shocked by the commission's recommendations. It demanded first that the government seize the enormous deposits of "unproved coal" in Britain and simultaneous purchase the existing proved deposits. This amounts to nationalization of royalties. The commissioner said an indirect reduction in wages would be indispensible.

Continuation of the subsidy was opposed by the commissioners although they discreetly refrained from stating their opinion as to whether or not it would have been avoidable last August when the government rushed to the treasury and found $50,000,000 with which to buy off the operators and miners from their respective intentions to declare a lockout and a strike.

ARREST OF SUSPECT AND ACCOMPLICE IS PLANNED THIS WEEK

Prominent Citizens Of Troy Involved Is "Inside" Report

By United Press

TROY, O., March 11.—The climax in the sensational Frances Drake Nesbitt murder mystery if predictions are borne out, will come either today, tomorrow or Saturday it was believed today.

The nature of the denoument of the now famous enigma is said to be known to the host of investigators probing the mystery.

To those outside the "inner circle" only two courses were believed open:

1—The arrest of a suspect and an accomplice.

2—The complete abandonment of the investigation.

Those in close touch with the situation claim that arrests will be made and that they will involve several Troy citizens—most of them prominent—not previously mentioned in the investigation.

To those who have watched the inquiry from a distance and garnered their information from newspapers, abandonment of the investigation, was the only course open. They insist the murderer of Mrs. Nesbitt will not be arrested for months—and perhaps years.

Mrs. Nesbitt was murdered three weeks ago. Her husband, Jacob, found her body. It was in the bath tub of their home. Mrs. Nesbitt had been strangled. Her head bore three deep lacerations, one of which penetrated the skull and caused concussion of the brain.

No motive for the murder has been advanced.

Only the possibility that arrests will be made, revived a glimmer of interest in the case today. The citizens of Troy and surrounding communities had all but discontinued discussing the case until Prosecutor Harvey's announcement that developments may be expected.

Special investigator Ora Slater of Cincinnati and Nesbitt returned last night after a flying trip to the Youngstown region. The trip was made in Nesbitt's automobile.

On his return, Slater said he had no information that could be given out at this time. He admitted he was following a new line of investigation, however.

Slater's latest procedure, it was understood, involves the questioning of a number of Troy citizens, who heretofore have not been mentioned at all, but some are socially prominent here, it was said.

CRABBE DENIES HIS OFFICE IN INQUIRY

COLUMBUS, O., March 11.—Reports from Troy that a representative of the attorney general's office has joined the investigation of the Frances Drake Nesbitt murder mystery were declared unfounded by Attorney General Crabbe this afternoon.

Reports from Troy this morning said Bert B. Buckley, a Dayton attorney, is taking part in the investigation at the behest of Crabbe.

"If Buckley has joined the inquiry he has done so on his own initiative and not by order of my department," Crabbe said.

Buckley was appointed state counsel to represent Crabbe in several Dayton cases.

Crabbe said his office could not join the probe until ordered to do so by Governor Donahey.

TRACY IS PROBING ROADS DEPARTMENT

CLEVELAND, O., March 11—State Auditor Joseph Tracy was in Cleveland today in connection with his investigation of "campaign contributions" involving the purchase of equipment by the state highway department.

Tracy will be joined late today by Attorney General Crabbe.

In addition to continuing the inquiry, Tracy planned to reorganize the work of state examiners assigned to Cuyahoga County. The re-organization is necessitated, he said, by the recent death of examiner M. K. Patterson.

The auditor said he also planned to assign an auditing engineer to check up expenditures in various municipalities, said to total millions of dollars.

DRY LEADERS URGE FOLLOWERS TO AVOID POLLS ON PROHIBITION BEING HELD BY NEWSPAPERS

By United Press

WASHINGTON, March 11—Dry leaders sent forth word today to their followers to avoid newspaper polls on prohibition.

Claiming that these polls are one-sided, open to "repeaters" and not at all indicative of real sentiment in the land the leaders warned that the dry question has been settled in "orderly fashion" and the polls are superfluous.

Senator Wesleyan Jones, Republican, Washington dry leader told the United Press that "dry leaders are advising their constituents against participating in the newspaper polls—the wise thing to do, I think."

"These polls" he said "have no special significance. I received a telegram from one of the prohibition leaders in my state yesterday who announced he had advised the people to take no part in the polls. In Seattle, a recent poll showed the wets ahead 100 to 1 but in the election a law enforcement mayor, Mrs. Landes, was elected."

His statement preceded a meeting of a Senate Judiciary committee which it was said, might result in a favorable vote to grant "beer hearings" to Senators Edge, Bruce and Edwards.

"I think the polls are highly significant" said Senator William Cabel Bruce, Maryland, Democrat wet leader to the United Press, "though of course they represent largely the opinion of cities and are by no means to be accepted as indicative of public sentiment in the rural communities. As far as they go they are specially significant because they were taken before the results could have been influenced by the organized efforts of either prohibitionists or anti-prohibitionists."

This sentiment was echoed by C. C. Hinckley, National Secretary of the Association against the Prohibition Amendment.

"Politicians cannot afford to overlook this expression of public opinion. We are very much in favor of referenda on prohibition as there has never been a direct vote on this question."

The association previously had endorsed the plan of District Attorney Buckner of New York for any referendum and for a state law to forbid alcohol, except wine and beer.

MANKIND WILL LOAF EVEN IN RURAL OHIO SURVEY IS SHOWING

Man's loafing habit seeks satisfaction in the open country just as it does in the city.

So a detailed survey of two Ohio counties, conducted under the direction of C. E. Lively, professor of rural sociology at the Ohio State University, indicates. Both counties are predominantly rural, one of them being in southeastern Ohio, the other in the northwestern quarter of the state.

The country store, usually located where two roads cross, holds a prominent place in the southeastern county as a place for loafing. Of eighty three possible loafing places in that county, seventy seven are stores, nineteen of them in villages, thirty one in hamlets, and twenty seven in the open country.

The northwestern county has fewer county loafing places, but probably just as much loafing, Professor Lively believes. Only thirty seven loafing places were found, twenty one of them in villages, twelve in hamlets, and four in the open country.

Men are the sole habitues of the country stores, the survey showed, and they predominate at loafing places in village and hamlet. Attendance at such places averaged from seven to nine in the southeastern county, and from fifteen to twenty in the northwestern county.

Only twenty seven per cent of the loafing places in the southeastern county were considered of good repute by the neighbors; eight per cent were classed as bad. In the northwestern county seventy six per cent were given a good reputation, and eleven per cent a bad one.

ANIMALS MARTYRS

LONDON, March 11--(UP)—Nearly two thousand animals have been destroyed as the result of gas poisoning experiments carried out by the government since May, 1923.

These include rabbits, rats, goats, guinea pigs, monkeys, mice and horses. Five of the latter have been destroyed.

Of the total, 447 were destroyed by or immediately after the experiment; 1,132 were destroyed within one month; 345 suffered no harm, while the remainder were either destroyed more than one month later or have been used at a recent date that they cannot yet be classified.

AIR PILOT EFFECTS LANDING WITH ONLY ONE WHEEL ON SHIP

Lieutenant Lester Maitland, piloting an airplane, experienced more thrills in a few minutes than a majority of people are afforded in a lifetime in making a unique landing at Wilbur Wright Field Wednesday.

Shortly after "taking off" Wednesday afternoon in a D. H. plane, the lieutenant found himself to be without the services of one wheel on the landing gear.

He found he must attempt a landing on one wheel. Swooping over the earth several times to find a suitable stop to land, he brought the plane to the ground but was forced to make a "two-point" landing.

Plane settled to the earth on its left wheel and tail skid and made a run of more than 200 yards on one wheel. At this point, the airplane lost speed and fell on its right side.

The lieutenant escaped personal injury but his plane was damaged by a broken wing and propeller.

LOVE'S GREATEST GIFT

The Story of a Girl Who Took Life Into Her Own Hands

Copyright, 1925, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

MARY WAITE, a stenographer, has a misunderstanding with

STEWART HOWE, whom she loves, because she has accepted the attentions of an older man,

PAT HAMILTON, who is a prominent politician. Mary finds that Hamilton's interest in her is the wrong kind, and runs away from him one evening when they are dining together. Soon afterward she loses her position, and gets another with

STANLEY BLAKE, who has just gone into business for himself. She meets

CELIA STEWART, and together they set up housekeeping in two rooms. Celia meets Blake, and flirts with him.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XVII—A MYSTERY

WHEN Mary returned later that evening after her cousin and she had gone to the movies, she found that Celia had not gone to bed, in spite of the fact that she had said she had a headache, but was sitting in the window seat, wearing a Chinese lounging suit.

VIOLET DARE

It was remarkably beautiful, and Mary exclaimed with delight over it.

"What a gorgeous suit, Celia," she said. "It must be new, isn't it?"

"Yes, it is; my brother sent it to me," Celia replied. She reached out one hand and drew Mary down beside her.

"I'm afraid I was snippy to you and your cousin, this evening," she said. "I'm awfully sorry. I'd worked so hard all day, and felt so upset, somehow, and I had looked forward to having a good talk with you this evening, and then when I came in and saw her here, something just seemed to snap inside me. I'm so fond of you, Mary dear, and I do depend on you so—I really believe I'm jealous of Lulu," she added, with a little laugh.

Mary laughed, too, whole heartedly.

"As if there was any reason for you to be," she said. "You know how much I think of you. I felt worried about you—you looked as if you'd been crying, when you came in."

"Well, I hadn't!" snapped Celia. "And I wish you wouldn't spy on me." Her voice had changed almost unbelievably. Then an instant afterward she was in tears, her head on Mary's shoulder. "Oh dear—I'm so horrid!" she exclaimed. "Do please forgive me, Mary—I didn't mean to act like that. I'm just worn out, that's all."

"You must go to bed at once, then," Mary exclaimed. "Did you have any dinner?"

"Well, I—no, I didn't, that is not much," Celia told her, slowly.

"I'll fix some for you—some toast and hot soup; that would be good for you, and I'm sure you'll go right to sleep when you've had it."

And so, while Celia went to bed, Mary made soup and toast, and after she had taken a tray to Celia, went back to wash the dinner dishes and put them away. She was very tired. She could not help remembering the days when she had lived at her aunt's. After all, it hadn't been very pleasant, living in another person's house, but she hadn't had anything but herself on her mind. And now she had Celia!

She could not help wondering about that Chinese suit. She knew that it must have been very expensive. And Celia's brother, according to Celia, was not in the habit of making her presents, even very cheap ones.

Celia had been crazy to have one of those suits—Mary knew that well enough. She was always talking about them, and making Mary stop in front of oriental goods shops where they were shown in the windows, and once she got Mary to take her noon hour for shopping, and go with her to a department store where they were having a sale of the suits, but they were so expensive that Celia couldn't dream of getting one.

"It's a waste of time to look at them," Mary had told her, but Celia had just laughed.

"I had to know exactly what I wanted," she answered. "Some day I'll have one of those suits. I always get what I want, sooner or later—usually sooner!"

Well, now she had one. Probably she'd written her brother and asked him to give it to her. It must have cost a lot; its embroideries were done in gold thread and it was of beautifully heavy satin.

The next day was Sunday, so Mary did not wake Celia when she herself got up at eight o'clock, and had a leisurely breakfast with the morning paper propped up in front of her. How lovely it must be, she thought, to have lots of time for breakfast every morning!

But she couldn't linger too long over hers, even on Sunday. She must straighten up the rooms, and then, if Celia wasn't awake yet, she'd go for a walk. She glanced about, noting some papers on the floor near the desk, and went to pick them up. Without meaning to, she read a card that was among them.

"Wear it and forgive me," was scrawled on it.

There were no initials. The writing was familiar; she studied it a moment. It looked ever so much like Stanley Blake's writing. She turned suddenly hot at that thought, and tossed it among the papers she was gathering together to throw away. Of course it couldn't be Mr. Blake's writing!

She finished her work, dressed and went for her walk, determined not to think of that card. Probably—

Celia was wearing a Chinese lounging suit.

oh, of course, not probably at all!—Celia's brother had written that card and sent it to her with the lounging suit. She dismissed the whole thing.

When she came home, Celia was rummaging in her desk.

"Lost anything?" Mary asked.

"Yes, I—you haven't been at my desk, have you?" Celia's voice was sharp.

"No, of course not. I picked up the papers on the floor when I was cleaning the room this morning, that was the only time I—"

"What papers? Did you take papers off my desk and throw them away? I—"

"No, I didn't!" Mary replied haughtily. "You know that I'd never dream of doing such a thing. I did pick up some papers, scraps that were on the floor, and throw them away. That was all."

"Oh, I'm sorry, I didn't mean to be cross—was there a card anywhere among them?" Celia was still fumbling through the things on her desk, and avoided Mary's eyes.

"Yes, there was," Mary answered quietly.

"Oh, I—I—" Celia was at a loss.

"I didn't mean to read it, but I did; I couldn't help it," Mary went on, steadily. "It said, 'Wear it and forgive me'."

Celia's anger broke then, like a storm. The things she said to Mary were harsh and cruel, and Mary was too young to realize that Celia was hiding a feeling of guilt beneath that hysterical rage.

She turned and went into the bedroom, telling herself that this was the end. She couldn't go on living with Celia, after this.

GETTING SKINNIER EVERY DAY

Something Must Be Done and Done Right Now—Quick

Tens of thousands of thin, run-down men—yes, and women too—are getting discouraged—are giving up all hope of ever being able to take on flesh and look healthy and strong.

All such people can stop worrying and start to smile and enjoy life right now for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets which any druggist will tell you all about, is putting flesh on hosts of skinny folks every day.

One woman, tired, weak and discouraged, put on 15 pounds in five weeks and now feels fine.

We all know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitalizing, flesh producing vitamines, but many people can't take it because of its horrible smell and fishy taste and because it often upsets the stomach.

McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets are as easy to take as candy and if any thin person don't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to give you your money back—and only 60 cents for 60 tablets. Ask Sayre and Hemphill or any live pharmacist anywhere.

But be sure to get McCoy's, the original and genuine, and bear in mind that for thin, sickly kids, they are wonderful—a very sickly child—age 9, gained 12 pounds in 3 months.—Adv.

HE COUGHED FOR TWO YEARS SWORE OFF

After coughing for two years almost continuously a man of considerable means got thin and tired and worn out, made his will, and was ready to quit the big game of life.

A friend spoke to him about Bronchuline and now life to him is very sweet indeed.

That's the kind of a cough that is put out of business with amazing speed when the cougher is wise to Bronchuline.

Tough old coughs — persistent coughs—coughs that hang on and rob people of their sleep—those are the kind of coughs Bronchuline likes to tackle.

Many times such coughs linger after the Grippe or a heavy cold, and if you have one or know of anyone who has one keep Bronchuline in mind.

It isn't just a cheap sweet cough syrup—it's the best cough remedy—and the best is never cheap. Sayre and Hemphill and dealers everywhere can supply you.—Adv.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

EFFECTS OF HEREDITY

EXTENSIVE experiments with animal life have proven that training is sometimes transmitted to the offspring. Certain traits purposely developed in one generation of mice were seen to pass on into succeeding generations, although these latter had been placed in a different environment. These experiments, no doubt, were conducted to learn if a race of super-men and super-women is possible from eugenics and if human offspring inherit the superiorities of their parents.

Among human beings the proverb has it that fools will not learn in any other school than experience. But in School and Society, published recently, it is contended that children benefit by the training which their parents and grandparents had through the third and fourth generations. There is a brief report of the results of the examination of 1,000 representative gifted children, with the summarizing statement by the psychologist, Professor Terman, that children of so many superiorities could not have acquired them all through environment influences alone. Not only are these children themselves superior but their heredity is also "demonstrably superior," and the intimation is that the training of their parents was a factor in this legacy of superiority.

The law of the mice, if it is a law, seemingly does not carry to men. While the plans of both mice and men gang aft-a-gley, the inference to be drawn from these scientific studies of a thousand school children, selected from a million, is that human parents who develop their own powers by training are likely to help their children incidentally in making their way more successfully through the increasingly intricate maze of existence.

AN OVERSEAS PRESS AGENT

THE MAN who spoke these words, John St. Zoe Strachey, was for years editor of the London Spectator. He has lately been on this side visiting old friends, renewing or correcting old impressions.

Hear his testimony:

I don't care what people say about crime statistics, racial difficulties, the negro problem, the Jewish problem or the Ku Klux Klan problem, because I know America is safe. It is a Nation of Home-Makers. America is absolutely sound and there is no danger whatever. Americans are the most kindly, the most helpful and the most courteous race of people on the face of the earth.

Those words were spoken in London to Englishmen most of all. That testimony of a competent observer was unsolicited, spontaneous, honest.

Those who know Strachey know that he is not given to "taffy." Dealing in sugar is not a habit of the Strachey family. Read that Queen Victoria book and be convinced.

But, allowing for the natural desire to say something nice after a pleasant visit there is much that is true, much that is basic in these observations, says the Herald-Post. As long as America is a land of homes, as long as she can be said to be sound below a ruffled surface, those who despair will have the worst of the argument.

THE MODERN GIRL

THOSE who have observed that the average girl today is healthy, pretty and trained to work require no defense of the modern young woman. Still there are some who, misled by the excess of talk about flappers, have the notion that the average of the girls of today is not as high as in former times.

The girls of today probably do more work than those of any other time, for the reason that the modern world has brought more occupations suitable to them. Nor are all those called flappers to be thought of as light, flippant creatures; certainly not as being immoral. Of course there are extremes among them, as in all classes and in all periods. But not class should be judged as a whole by the few in it who may be unfortunate. However, the worst flappers of today could not possibly be inveighed against more severely than were their sisters of ancient times.

Cato the Censor had his troubles with them, and the Bible also has many commentaries on their dress and conduct. What modern flapper could act in a more flippant manner than the daughters of Zion described in the sixteenth verse of the third chapter of Isaiah; daughters who were haughty, and walked with stretch-forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they went, and making a tinkling with their feet? The rest of the chapter also has much to say of their dress. In all ages there have been extremes just as today.

CROCHETED DISH MAT

We seldom ask for recipes or directions of any sort in our column without receiving them from some kind Reader-Friend, do we? Several weeks ago one of our readers asked for directions for a crocheted hot-dish mat for the dining table. Today's mail brought the following from an anonymous housekeeper:

"Crocheted Mat for Hot Dishes: Chain seven and join.

Row one: Ch. 3, 25 Tr. in ring. Join to top of three Ch.

Row Two: Ch. 5.,* miss one, Tr. in next, Ch. 2; repeat around, joining to third of five Ch., 13 sp. in all.

Row Three: Two Tr. (Ch. three for first Tr.) in each Tr., two Ch. between groups; join last two Ch. to top of three Ch. always.

Row Four: Treble in first Tr., two in next, Ch. two, repeat around, join.

Row Five: Treble in each Tr., with two in last, Ch. two; repeat, join.

Rows Six, Seven, Eight and Nine: Same as Fifth Row, increasing Tr. in each point, every row. (For a larger mat, just increasing till desired size.)

Row Ten: Seven Tr. in seven Tr., chain two, Tr. in Sp. of two Ch., Ch. two, repeat around, join.

Rows Eleven, 12, 13, 14 and 15: Same as the Tenth Row decreasing each point, One Tr., and increasing one Sp. between points every row.

Row Sixteen: Treble in first of two Tr. (Ch. two, tr. in Sp.) seven times, Ch. two, repeat around, join.

Rows 17, 18, 19, 20, and 21: Space all around and join.

Row 22: Sp. with only one chain between.

To make edge:

Fasten in the Nineteenth Row, two Tr. in Sp., Ch. four, fasten in first stitch of chain for picot, two Tr. in same Sp., a Double Crochet in next Sp., repeat around.

There will be rows to put under the mat. This holds them on tight."

ACHIEVEMENT

I may not have the strength to climb
The heights of glory or the skill
To weave a deathless song or rhyme,
But I can play the man, and will.
I cannot pass beyond my best,
Beyond my strength I cannot go,
But I can meet a simpler test—
I need not hate or malice show.
I can be friendly and be kind,
For that great gifts are not required.
To leave glad memories behind,
One does not have to be inspired.

I can without resentment face
The disappointments of the day
And add some little touch of grace
To mark the paths I loved to stray.

This privilege God gives us all
From birth until our struggles end:
Whether our tasks be great or small,
To play the neighbor and the friend.

SIDELIGHTS ON Greene County History

THE SHERIFF

Office of county sheriff is directly concerned with the enforcement of the law, and in the course of the 114 years of its existence, Greene County sheriffs have handled scores of desperate criminals.

Duties of the sheriff were particularly dangerous during the early history of the county when the jails were only improvised structures and some criminals escaped. County commissioners' records show several orders for repairs of breaks in the county bastile resulting from the successful attempt of a prisoner to escape.

In addition to his duties in maintaining the peace and in apprehending law violators, the sheriff in the early days was the collector of taxes.

First record book of the minutes of Common Pleas Court contains an order for the clerk to turn over to Nathan Lamme, Greene County's first sheriff, the tax lists.

Since silver specie was scarce in those days and as the tax bill of any person seldom failed to have a fractional cent included, Mexican dollars then in circulation had to be cut.

The sheriff, in starting to the neighborhood from which he intended to collect the tax, carried in the saddle on his horse, a hammer and cold chisel to cut the specie of larger denominations into the requisite size. Tenure of the office of the sheriff is two years.

Names of those who have served the county in this capacity follow: Nathan Lamme, 1803-05; William Maxwell, 1805-'07; James Collier, 1807-'14; John Hiviling, 1814-'15; James Popenoe, 1815-'19; John Smith, 1819-'24; James Popenoe, 1824-'30; James A. RARE PEOPLE

Every once in a while—often only after 10 or 20 years—you run across somebody whom you can't explain, somebody whom you just like and know you like, but don't know why.

Rare—very. But what an event!

I have never liked explaining people. I always feel that they are apt to forget to explain some things that later I might discover to their disadvantage, and then I would be disappointed. And I don't like to be disappointed in people.

But if they are of this rare type, I can forgive much—because they never ask me to forgive anything!

When you read the lives and works of such people as Poe, Hudson, Bayard, Shelley, Byron, and many others who died bathed in their own tears of disappointment, you feel that a kind of warmth glows in your heart. You feel that you are associating with those who loathed pity, but who craved understanding and sympathy and appreciation. Rare people.

We need the press and warmth of hands in this world. Just handclasps—without words. There are enough hands, God knows, without the clasp.

You can walk a long way, a be a long time with a rare person and feel that time has be a record in speed—though hours and hours have elapsed.

Mothers are rare people. Often a mere boy or girl is. Often a rough, unlettered man.

Rare people are well worth hunting for and tying to. To be attracted to a rare person, in the first place, is a compliment to your worth and ability. In fact, it takes a rare person to be attracted to a rare person.

So, be rare—if you know how.

MODISH MITZI—This Took Will Power—But Whose? By JAY V. JAY

One of the chief things Mitzi is working her newly discovered will power on is the buying of new clothes. Still, she can look at them and since she has a card for the opening of a new and extremely smart shop she thinks it will certainly hurt no one if she stops in for a minute.

Mitzi and the model (in the first sketch) show you two of the cape-costumes of the season. This young woman is exhibiting quite successfully the spring suit made to look like a man's dinner jacket. It is of navy blue serge, and is worn with a frilled white silk blouse.

Mitzi admires the brocade evening gown, with the low back and high front neckline, and is converted to the cause of the one-piece frock trimmed with scallops of braid. Besides, she is still thinking of that suit. "Why, Mitzi," exclaims Polly, arriving from nowhere, "you're not buying clothes!"

"Of course not," says Mitzi. "can't I look at them without buying any?" The answer is that is usually no, but Polly does n't make it—she only guides Mitzi out of the alluring place and suggests that it's time for them to study the fifth, or is it fifteenth, lesson on Will Power.

ROBINS OPTIMISTS FARRELL FINDS IN TALK WITH PLAYERS

By HENRY L. FARRELL

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 10. —There are no hands of welcome for any one who comes to the Brooklyn ball park with a long face and words of sympathy.

"Where do you fellows get that stuff that we are out of the race? Look at that bunch hustling. They are not holding their heads down, are they?" Wilbert Robinson, president manager of the club, has been saying to the critics.

The Brooklyn players are not youngsters, but their hustle is the first thing observed at their training camp.

It is rather an unusual sight to see veterans like Zach Wheat, Josck Fournier, "Rabbit" Maranville and Burleigh Grimes cutting up like college boys but they are doing it.

Robinson is particularly fond of his pitching staff. He thinks it is the strongest and best balanced corps he has ever tutored and it will be recalled he always has been strong on pitching.

Dazzy Vance, Burleigh Grimes, Tiny Osborne, Harry Courtney and Rube Ehrhardt remain from last season and Jess Barnes, Doug McWeenery, George Boehler and Bob McGraw are newcomers.

McWeenery and McGraw had chances before in the major leagues and lack of control caused them to trip back to the miners, but Robby is use now that they are ready for a real comeback.

The obstinacy of Milton Stock in holding back for more pay has made indefinite plans for the infield. Jack Fournier, of course, will play first base and Robbie would like to have Stock for duty along with Rabbit Maranville, at short and Johnny Butler, a high priced rookie from the American Association at third. Butler is not in the best of shape as he reported with stomach trouble but the club doctor hopes to have him ready.

If Stock fails to report, Robinson may have to use Jerry Standaert, a youngster.

Whitey Witt, former Yankee center fielder, Zach Wheat, former captain of the team and Dick Cox will be used as regulars in the outfield.

For reserve duty the club will have Merwin Jacobson who came up from the International League and Felix, formerly with the Boston Braves.

Vapors stop Colds

VAPORS reach a cold directly because they are breathed right into the air passages and lungs. It is for this reason that Vicks VapoRub brings such quick relief. When rubbed over throat and chest at bedtime:—

It is vaporized by the body heat and inhaled, while you sleep, right to the affected parts, loosening the phlegm and easing the difficult breathing.

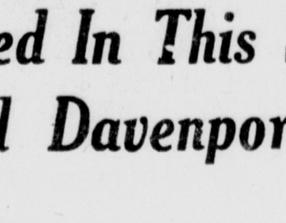

At the same time it acts through the skin (like a poultice or plaster) "drawing out" the pain and soreness.

Most colds yield by morning to this double action of Vicks.

GEORGE H. ECKERLE AND HELEN DODDS TO SEEK COUNTY OFFICES

With the political pot already beginning to bubble, citizens with aspirations for public office are already announcing their intention of becoming candidates for the various county offices at the August primary in Greene County.

Vacancies will exist in the county auditor's office, treasurer's office, recorder's office, clerk's office, for county commissioner, prosecutor, sheriff, Common Pleas judge, state senator and representative.

Public office holders who have definitely announced their candidacies for re-election include Harvey Elam for clerk of courts, B. F. Thomas for recorder, Herman Eavey for commissioner, J. C. Marshall for prosecutor, and L. T. Marshall for state senator.

Only one candidate so far is in the field for county treasurer. Miss Helen Dodds, for the past five years clerk in the treasurer's office, is announcing her formal candidacy for treasurer.

Miss Dodds served as Greene County chairman of the Republican women's organization in the 1924 presidential campaign and is also a member of the Xenia Business and Professional Women's Club.

Having served two terms as treasurer, Frank A. Jackson is not eligible under the law for a third term and will not again seek public office this year, he announced.

Sheriff Morris Sharp, whose second term expires this year, is also ineligible for re-election but is being talked of as a candidate for treasurer. The sheriff has not definitely decided to enter the race.

Deputy Sheriff John Baughn announced his candidacy for sheriff Thursday and is the only entrant in sight. He is completing a service of four years as deputy sheriff and for a time served as acting sheriff. He is a Republican.

R. O. Wead will probably seek re-election, he said, but will have opposition with the formal announcement by George H. Eckerle, of the Eckerle Printing Co., of his intention of becoming a candidate for auditor in August.

With the expiration of his term of six years as Common Pleas Court judge this year, R. L. Gowdy will probably seek re-election at the November election, it is believed certain. Judge Gowdy is in Cleveland and confirmation could not be obtained.

R. D. Williamson, Greene County's representative in the state legislature, will in all probablitiy seek a second term in August, it is believed.

Only one vacancy exists on the board of County Commissioners. Commissioners J. H. Lackey and A. E. Beam have two more years to serve. W. J. Davis, county surveyor, will continue in office for nearly two more years under the Ohio law. No election for judge of Probate Court will be held for two years.

PAINTERS GATHER AT ANNUAL MEETINGS

Nearly thirty men employed at the painting trade in Xenia and parts of Greene County held their third annual "get-together" meeting at the Babb hardware store, S. Detroit St., Wednesday evening.

Problems confronting the painters, possible solutions and various other topics were discussed at the meeting. New and modern forms of interior decorative work were also taken up and considered. Refreshments were served.

Deep Sea Water Helps Weak Folks Gain Vigor and Health

Ocean-O is deep sea water distilled and concentrated and in every bottle of this natural health builder you will find the mineral elements that are found in pure, healthy blood.

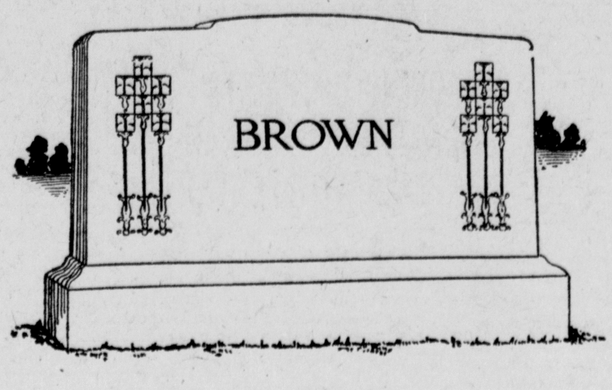

When you are anaemic, rundown—are nervous and can't get restful sleep—it is probably because your blood needs one or more of the vitalizing elements that Ocean-O contains.

These alkaline mineral elements which modern food has ceased to supply to the blood are the cause of many ailments that lessen your vitality—keep your vigor below par and cause much anxiety to your family and friends.

Besides being a powerful upbuilding agent for the whole system it is a splendid tonic laxative; is fine for gastritis and to improve digestion and is especially valuable where there is faulty nutrition.

Ocean-O, full of life-giving mineral elements, acts thru the blood. As soon as it gets into the blood stream it carries to every organ, gland and nerve in the body a rich supply of just the elements needed to create anew the fullest measure of vitality and health.

You can get a 10 ounce bottle of Ocean-O from Sayre and Hemphill or any druggist with the distinct understanding that if it doesn't help you wonderfully your money will be returned. As Ocean-O is concentrated and a regular dose is one teaspoonful to one tablespoonful in half a glass of water, a bottle lasts a long time. —Adv.

"For over sixty years builders of fine Memorials"

ALWAYS YOUNG

THIS IS FANNY WARD, vacationing in Florida. She is a grandmother, has been a musical comedy favorite for nearly two decades, is nearing her sixtieth birthday, and yet has the youthful appearance of a woman half her age. She attributes the secret of youth and beauty to the fact that she had adopted a theory of graceful repose of both face and body. Distorted motions cause wrinkles and ugliness, she says.

Here is sure relief for Constipation

You cannot be well and happy and be constipated—that is certain. Headache, dullness, sallow complexion, sickness and operations are caused by carelessness and our modern way of living. No laxative is effective that does not act on the entire bowel system. Just the emptying of the lower bowel does not give best results. The new accepted way is by taking KLOK-LAX tabules at 9 at night. KLOK-LAX thoroughly cleans the entire bowel system. Your druggist will guarantee KLOK-LAX—in the "gold and black" box—18 tabules thirty-five cents.

KLOK-LAX "acts on time"

Gives Advice to Expectant Mothers

"I ADVISE all expectant mothers to use Mother's Friend," writes Mrs. Wesley Miller, Hudson, Mich. "I have had nine children. With my first three I suffered for 24 hours. Beginning with the fourth I used Mother's Friend and was sick only 15 minutes. Since then I have had five and was only sick about 10 minutes with each."

Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician and has been a positive blessing to thousands of expectant mothers for over three generations. Used daily, externally, it soothes the nerves and muscles as month follows month. Finally it makes childbirth a joy!

The mothers who praise Mother's Friend the most are those who did not use it with their first baby but through its use with the second, were able to realize its almost unbelievable results.

Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and meanwhile write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 84, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists everywhere.

W. K. Kellogg

This thing will dull the brightest "star"

YOU probably know this story, or one amazingly like it. It deals with a young man who started out "with everything"—who made brilliant progress for a time—became a "star"—had his little hour . . . and then faded. . . . What vicious thing can so transform a man? Can make a strong heart weak? An energetic body spineless? . . .

Constipation ruins so many promising persons—a dread disease which saps life and strength. The fortunate fact about constipation is that it can be conquered—surely, safely, permanently. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the answer!

As Kellogg's ALL-BRAN journeys through the system, its fiber remains unchanged. Doctors call ALL-BRAN a bulk food. You know the importance of "bulk" in diet. Its delightful nutty flavor makes it good as a cereal. Serve with milk or cream, or with fresh or preserved fruit; sprinkle over other cereals or cook with hot cereals; use in soups or make into the many recipes given on the package. If eaten regularly, ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or money refunded. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

Be sure to get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. A part-bran product can, at best, be but partially effective. Kellogg's is the original, genuine 100% ALL-BRAN. Doctors recommend it. All grocers sell it. Leading hotels and restaurants serve it.

AMERICAN RUBBER PLANTING IN LIBERIA WILL FAIL SAY BRITISH

SINGAPORE, Mar. 11.—The efforts of American manufacturers to enter the rubber growing business in Liberia, meet with derision by veteran rubber men of the East.

The American efforts are doomed to meet with failure, in the British view, for several reasons, principally these:

1. An experienced personnel and an adequate supply of good labor cannot be maintained in Liberia.

2. Estates can only be developed at prohibitive costs.

3. Even if large estates are planted it will be five or six years before any appreciable supply of rubber can be obtained.

Rubber growers in Malaysia figure five years as the minimum time to get a rubber estate in production. At least a year is necessary to clear jungle and plant. Another four years must pass before the rubber tree is ready for tapping.

The British have hundreds of big estates already in production. They have all the equipment and land necessary to enlarge these estates to any degree required by consumption. They have a great personnel of trained rubber men and have perfected all the elaborate commercial equipment—banking, shipping, handling and curing of latex, grading, reconditions etc—in working order. They do not fear competition.

American complaints at high rubber prices have called forth a series of somewhat bitter editorials in the British Malaysian press.

"Taken in the bunch," says the Straits Times, the chief organ of the rubber interests, "the rubber magnates of the States are not by any means as far sighted as they ought to be. In 1921 they could easily have made restriction unnecessary. If they had come to the plantation owners and offered to pay even a shilling a pound for rubber in order to keep the industry on its legs, we would all have been content to struggle on until better times came.

"But they were so eager to profit by our misfortune that they were delighted to see the price fall as low as seven pence. It seemd good business to get their rubber at less than cost price and they made big profits while we made big losses. Then we got a grip of the situation (through limiting production), but we never tried for more than a fair price."

For the next 10 years, the Times confidently predicts, Britain will remain supreme in world rubber production and America will continue to pay.

"The Americans have not faced up to the simple realities," it continues: "They made restriction a necessity. Then they raged against it. And because we are recovering our losses they are scheming to become independent of our sources of supply. They have been big customers but never friendly ones. We owe them nothing and must simply take all we can from them while we have the power."

Feel Splendid! Nicest Laxative, "Cascarets" 10c

Don't stay headachy, dizzy, bilious, constipated, sick!

One or two pleasant candy-like "Cascarets" taken any time will mildly stimulate your liver and start your bowels. Then you will both look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed. Your head will be clear, stomach sweet, tongue pink and your skin rosy.

Because "Cascarets" never gripe or sicken, it has become the largest selling laxative in the world.

Letters and Questions About Health

By Dr. Lewis Baker and Associates

An Advertisement Informing The Public In a Common-sense Manner How To Distinguish The Simpler Ailments And Symptoms, And the Right Remedies for Treatment. Each Medicine Possesses The Highest Qualities For The Purpose Intended.

Sometimes, small crystals form in the tubules of the kidneys, creating irritation and producing the sensation of "Backache." Often these crystals are formed in the bladder, producing pains and irritation very annoying to the person. The imperfect secretion of the urinary product also accounts for burning, stinging sensations while frequent calls at night disturb the sleep and rest, required to renew energy. Elderly persons often have to arise from three to a dozen times to get a temporary relief from such distress.

For such trouble I recommend a compound of diuretic, soothing, sedative agents, Balmwort Tablets which act promptly in almost every case, producing a normal flow with comfort, strength and a general feeling of well being.

* * *

R. B. J. writes: "I have a trembling of the nerves and a 'shaky' sensation in arms and legs which annoys me greatly. I am in a nervous, run-down state, with poor appetite. Don't sleep well and am both weak and easily irritated all the time."

Answer: If constipation is one source of your trouble, take Sulpherb tablets as a liver and bowel tonic, while taking Cadomene tablets as a tonic for the blood and nerves. They may be taken at the same time.

* * *

Mrs. A. C. writes: "My two children have been out of school for two weeks because of a severe cold and cough. Nothing we have used has seemed to help them and I write for advice."

Answer: Obtain essence Mentho-Laxene and dilute it with sugar syrup or honey. Give this to your children every hour or two. This is being used by thousands of mothers, because it is quickly effective and contains no opiates, chloroform, or narcotics to upset the little stomachs.

* * *

R. L. J. writes: "I am suffering with terrible rheumatism pain and want a safe relief without morphine or kindred drugs."

Answer: Ask druggist for 5-grain Su-thol tablets (pronounced soothe-all). Contain no opiates or narcotics, but act quickly in relieving pain, headache, etc.

* * *

Answer to Miss B. C.: Perspiration odors, armpit odors, foot odors, are readily banished and prevented by the regular use of medicated Chex soap for toilet and bath. It has elusive fragrance, but no medical odor, is beautifying to the skin because of its high quality and unusual medication.

* *

Answer to A. R.: For nasal catarrh apply Mentho-Laxene Salve in nostrils morning and night. This salve is useful in preventing colds in the head and should have a place in every home.

Note: Dr. Lewis Baker, Medical Director of The Blackburn Products Co., 312 College Bldg. Dayton, Ohio, will send his valuable guide to Health and Beauty, to any address upon receipt of 10cts. Coin. The trustworthy medicines advised, can be obtained of all leading druggists.

Sulpherb Drives Pimples Away

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Master Isadore Zlinsky, 1 Rogers St., writes: "I am writing of the benefits I received from using Sulpherb Tablets, and I recommend them to all who suffer from pimples (acne) boils, constipation, etc. In the last two years my face was badly covered with pimples and my blood was poor. I read about Sulpherb and when I had finished the second box my pimples had disappeared entirely. I ate better and seemed to be getting along wonderfully, etc."

Nasal Catarrh Benefited

PATERSON, N. J., Mrs. A. Zimlingham, 547 E. 23rd St., writes: "The children and myself are using Mentho-Laxene Salve for nasal catarrh and we breathe much more freely, etc."

Common Trouble Corrected

NEWARK, N. J., Mrs. J. E. White, 24 Chestnut St., writes: "I am a woman over forty. Was troubled with a scant flow of urine. After taking two large boxes of Balmwort Tablets the flow became normal, as it should and I feel very much benefited and wish to recommend it, etc."

* * *

"Night" Coughing Gone

CHICAGO, ILL., Mrs. Joseph Balaboa, 55 W. Ohio St., writes: "My husband and baby had a choking cough that nothing we could find helped, and I was in despair for want of sleep. One bottle of Mentho-Laxene —it's not all gone, but the coughs are, and for the first time in weeks we all sleep. I was bothered with constipation until I used the Cascara-Royal Pills, and now I am regular every day. These products will always have a regular place in our medicine chest, etc."

Tonic-Medicine Brought Strength

NEW YORK CITY, Mr. E. Prete, 119 W. 15th St., writes: "I am 33 years old and married. Working as a waiter and for a long time suffering indigestion, I became all run down. After using Cadomene tablets, I can be on my feet 12 hours, go home and feel like enjoying life. Before I took Cadomene tablets I would be all in and could not even talk to my wife. Now my wife tells me I look like a young man again and full of pep, etc."

Chex Soap—"Above Any"

WACO, TEXAS: A Physician endorses Chex as follows: "We find Chex to be a high grade toilet and deodorant soap and think, no better could be made. By test it is far above any we have ever used, etc."

OHIO IS INCLUDED IN ORGANIZATION BELT OF AMERICA

Besides being in the corn belt, Ohio is in the farm organization belt of the United States, a survey completed by the Federal Department of Agriculture shows.

More than 12,000 farmers' business organizations are now active in the United States, the survey found, and 70 per cent of them are in the twelve north central states, which group includes Ohio.

This total of farmers' business organizations is more than twice that of 1915. The federal department's figures include associations selling farm products or buying farm supplies, operating creameries, cheese factories, canning plants, grain elevators, stockyards, warehouses, or rendering some one or more of the essential services connected with the conduct of farmer' enterprises.

The figures do not include, the department makes plain, farmers' co-operative banks, credit associations, nor insurance companies.

Fifty-four of the associations listed are federations with local units, forty-nine are sales agencies operating in central markets, thirty-five are bargaining associations, and ninety-eight are large-scale organizations of the centralized type. Of the total, 3,325 are engaged in marketing grain, 2,197 handle dairy products, 1,770 ship livestock, 1,250 market fruits and vegetables, 121 help with the marketing of cotton, ninety-one in marketing wool, seventy-one in marketing poultry or poultry products and twenty-four in marketing tobacco.

The largest number of associations reporting from any one state is 1,383 from Minnesota.

MONSTER DIRIGIBLE CARRYING PLANE WILL BE CONSTRUCTED

AKRON, O., Mar. 5.—A gigantic airship of the air, practically double the size of the Shenandoah and the Los Angeles, designed to carry four to six combat airplanes, will soon be constructed here according to the announcement of Goodyear-Zeppelin Corporation officials.

Blue print plans for the new air monster were worked out in cooperation with Rear Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics.

Improved and modernized structural details together with many new general features is expected to make the contemplated airship the strongest and fastest aircraft ever constructed.

To make possible the building of the control cabin and all the power-car units inside the ship itself, triple keels will be utilized, extending throughout the entire length, thus assuring greater sturdiness to the ship's hull. The designers regard this as a vital factor to remove the possibility of loss of an engine car or control while flying and at the same time to eliminate considerable air resistance, adding, naturally, to the speed of the airship.

If the control car of the Shenandoah had not broken free from the rest of the ship, probably the great loss of lives would not have occurred, it is said. The present designers have profited from the Shenandoah's experience in this regard.

A new type of tilting propellers, developed recently, will be used. They can be turned downward when the ship commander desires additional vertical lifting strength, and reversed when the ship is in a lightened condition to drive downward without valving or shutting off the helium gas. This feature will make possible additional maneuvering ability.

The gas bag will be 790 feet long and 135 feet in diameter. The gas capacity will be about 6,500,000 cubic feet, more than twice the volume of either the Los Angeles or Shenandoah.

Motors capable of 4800 horsepower will give the ship a maximum speed of 90 miles an hour, a cruising speed of 80 miles an hour, and a range at this speed, under average flying conditions carrying a full military load of guns and airplanes of more than 5,000 miles.

MRS. SUSAN HARPER DIES ON WEDNESDAY

After two and one-half years of invalidism, Mrs. Susan J. Harper, 86, died Wednesday afternoon at 2:05 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Bickett, east of Xenia. Her last illness was of about five weeks' duration.

Mrs. Harper was the daughter of James and Nancy Spencer, pioneers of this county, and was born June 20, 1840. She was a graduate of Xenia Female Seminary and was for many years a teacher. She married October 14, 1869 to Andrew Harper, a farmer near Jamestown. Mr. Harper died in 1887, leaving her with the care and education of her children.

Mrs. Harper was a life-long member of the Jamestown United Presbyterian Church and was for many years teacher of the Women's Bible Class. She was also an active worker in the missionary society and the county W. C. T. U., while health permitted.

Thomas Spencer and Mrs. Belle Finney, this city; Mrs. Nannie Henderson, Cedarville and Dr. F. M. Spencer, Sterling, Kan., are brothers and sisters of the deceased. She leaves four children, Margaret, wife of Albert Bickett; Frank of Ross Twp., J. Robb, superintendent of Wilmette, Ill., schools and George, teacher in Kenilworth, Ill., high school. There are seven grand children and one great-grandchild. Three grandchildren preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m., at the Bickett home. Burial will be in Jamestown Cemetery.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

Women Need a Mild Laxative —Not a "Physic"

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he constantly advised mothers to give only a harmless laxative which would help to establish natural bowel "regularity."

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin mothers have a regulating laxative which they can depend upon whenever a child is constipated, bilious, feverish or sick from a cold, indigestion or sour stomach. All children love its pleasant taste.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine and just see for yourself how perfectly it cleanses and regulates the bowels of infants and children.—Adv.

"Not Possible To Classify" By Mack Sauer

A few jottings of the day by Samuel Pepys, Jr.: Put off my knee lengths and into my red flannels. Then to work. Froze nearly, the wind mighty nippy and stronger than to my liking. Caught up with a merry chap who was of a mind to walk by my side and chat with me, but I left him and went by way of another street, I being too cold to even tal.

Met a chap who plans to run for county office, and to listen to him relate his virtues was a task, indeed. And of a truth I never heard so much vanity in my life, so, being weary of him, we parted, I deciding how I would vote for at least one man the next primary, it being the man who is running against my proud friend.

To my great surprise came an offer for my gasoline buggy, which is a wreck and ready to fall apart, almost, it doth appear, but which gave such a good running that my buyer bargained for it, and happy he was to deal with me. So out to see my friend Horace Prince, to see if he could sell me a bicycle or no for what I got for the car, and looked also for one for my wife.

The latest fad among the girls is to wear smock over the dresses in the offices, which may be serviceable, yet look like dresses far too big for them, and methought one girl was wearing her mother's dress, when I saw her. But what could be more foolish and out of reason than for young saplings to wear navy pants. A practice that is going far.

In the late evening to watch the firemen fight flames and much praise on all sides for the work of the fighters. Through the crowd to tell Chief Claire how good are his men, and stepped in water to my knee, the crowd laughing at me, so sneaked home and to bed without my wife seeing me, thus saving a bathing in Vick's Salve and other remedies. And so late to bed with prayers.

THE GLUTTON

If we said anything, he wanted to fight us;
So the doctors came and took him away
And opened him up for appendicitis.

ILLUSTRATES TALK BEFORE BOY SCOUTS

Steropticon slides and motion pictures of sports among the wilds were shown by Professor Edwin Zavitz, Antioch College, at the meeting held by Xenia Boy Scout Troops, in American Legion Headquarters, Kingsburg Building, Wednesday night.

Professor Zavitz has charge of a boys' camp at Cass Lake, Minne., eight weeks each summer and had obtained many interesting views of the camp, surrounding country and various sports of interest to boys.

Two boxing bouts preceded the address, staged by Ronald Bice, Donald Stevens, "flyweights;" Richard Maddox and "Doc" Lorimer, light heavyweights. Stevens won the first decision and Lorimer the second.

Prizes in the ticket selling contest for the benefit "movie" held by the Scouts recently, were won by Edward Bath, Ronald Bice and John Perrill.

Big turn-out of boys and Scout leaders featured the meeting.

TWO HOMES MADE HAPPY

By Women Who Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I think it is the most wonderful medicine I ever tried," is the statement made by Mrs. Goldie Shoup of May View, Illinois. She declares that after taking the Compound she is in better health than before.

Mrs. J. Storms of 29 Lane Street, Paterson, N. J., writes: "I can not speak too highly of your medicine and I recommend it to all my friends."

These statements were taken from two enthusiastic letters which tell of the help that has been received from using the Vegetable Compound. Both Mrs. Shoup and Mrs. Storms were in a run-down condition which caused them much unhappiness. When women are suffering from lack of strength and from weakness, their own life and that of their family is affected. When they feel well and strong and are able to do their housework easily, happy homes are the result.

MULLINS CASE WILL BE HEARD FRIDAY

Theodore Mullins, 17, of near Osborn, will be given a hearing before R. O. Copsey, justice of the peace, on a charge of illegal possession of liquor Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Warrant containing the charges upon which Mullins was arrested was filed by John Powell, state prohibition enforcement officer. He pleaded not guilty when arraigned.

Mullins entered the spotlight several weeks ago when he preferred charges of shooting with intent to wound against Constables J. W. Sidwell and Earl Severs, Van Buren Twp., Montgomery County, and J. E. Watts, state prohibition inspector, as the echo of a raid on the Mullins' home in Osborn in February.

The trio conducted the raid and Mullins charges he was fired upon thirteen times, two shots striking his arm. The dry raiders each pleaded not guilty to the allegations and are held to the grand jury.

FARMS, LIKE BANKS MUST HAVE CAPITAL. RECORDS INDICATE

It takes as much capital to run a 125 acre farm in Ohio as it does to run a small country bank.

On twenty one Putnam County farms, averaging 125 acres in size, the total investment averages $25,000 a farm, with the range from $13,000 to $50,000.

These figures come from the farm accounts kept by this Putnam County group in co-operation with rural economists at the Ohio State University and the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

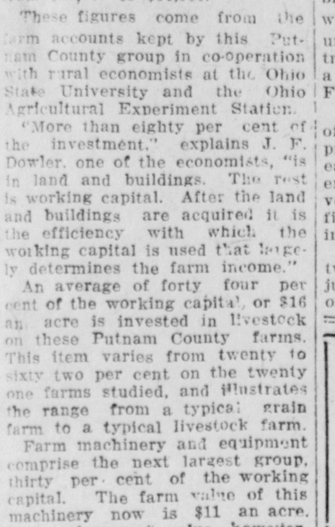

"More than eighty per cent of the investment," explains J. F. Dowler, one of the economists, "is in land and buildings. The rest is working capital. After the land and buildings are acquired it is the efficiency with which the working capital is used that largely determines the farm income."

An average of forty four per cent of the working capital, or $16 an acre is invested in livestock on these Putnam County farms. This item varies from twenty to sixty two per cent on the twenty one farms studied, and illustrates the range from a typical grain farm to a typical livestock farm.

Farm machinery and equipment comprise the next largest group, thirty per cent of the working capital. The farm value of this machinery now is $11 an acre. Its replacement value, however, would be twice that sum.

The rest of the working capital, twenty-six per cent, includes the inventories of farm produce, purchased feeds, seeds, and other supplies.

IS EVERY DAY A BACKACHE DAY?

Xenia Folks Have Found the Cause and Corrected It.

Is your back lame and achy? Are you tortured with sharp, rheumatic pains; miserable with headaches, dizzy spells and kidney irregularities? No wonder then, you feel worn-out and discouraged. But have you given any thought to your kidneys? You should! Weak kidneys cause just such troubles. Don't risk neglect! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Here's a Xenia case.

J. F. Mellage, shoemaker, 426 W. Second St., says: "My back ached constantly and every time I stooped, I got a stab of pain through it. When I bent, it was hard to straighten, my back was so knotted up. Mornings I dreaded to get up, I was so stiff and lame. I had to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Pills relieved the backache and my kidneys again became normal."

END ECZEMA TORTURES FOREVER

No Need to Suffer Another Day

There is one simple yet inexpensive way to stop the itching and torture of Eczema instantly, and that is to apply Moone's Emerald Oil night and morning and people who suffer from any embarrassing or disfiguring skin trouble would be wise to banish it before it reaches a more or less chronic stage.

Ask Sayre and Hemphill or any first-class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces last a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not give you complete satisfaction you can have your money refunded.

Special note: People who want to reduce swollen or varicose veins should get a bottle of Emerald Oil at once. Applied night and morning as directed they will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.—Adv.

The Theatre

Palaces of white marble and pink and ochre stucco sprawling over foothills____Twelve room servants' houses____heated swimming pools____acres of planted tropical forest and garden____fifteen car garages halfway down the hillside.

These are Adele Whitely Fletcher's impressions of Hollywood, gained through a recent visit.

"If you want something resembling an honest picture of Hollywood, picture the wealthiest suburb you know and multiply its attractions a hundred times. Then a hundred times again," says Mrs. Fletcher.

"It is a gay place, a Mardi Gras of youth and gold and beauty. The pity of life is that wealth is rarely earned until age has stolen away enthusiasms and imagination; the very things which make gold infinitely more than a heavy weight in the pocket.

"Out there beautiful girls of twenty are wealthy. Young men just beginning to boast of a fuzz on their upper lip are on the Utopian road to financial security.

"This generation of movie stars profited by the example of those who went before them. They have seen favorites of yesterday waiting humbly in lines that formed outside a casting director's window. They have watched others whose names once electrified the night, lie ill and worried as age and poverty marched hand in hand, to meet them.

"Great sums of money are squandered. And why not? It is a unique place. Nowhere else in this world is Youth so lavishly enthroned. And nowhere else in this world is Youth so conscious of Age's ghostly figure creeping up behind it."

The New Yorker tells of the experience of Craig Biddle, scion of a wealthy and socially prominent family, during his brief career in the movies.

Biddle was instructed to do an entrance scene into the house. He came in, spoke smilingly to the servant who met him at the door, handed him his hat, coat and stick, and sauntered off the set in the best approved manner.

He didn't have to act anyway but natural for he'd been doing that sort of thing all his life. The director, however, was disgusted. He did it himself to show how it should be done. His nose in the air in a movie effort to show a haughty attitude, he passed his things to the butler without even deigning that individual a glance, sauntered to a mirror in the hall and combed his hair with a comb taken from his vest pocket.

"Don't get familiar with a servant," he explained. "Wealthy people always ignore their servants. And they always like to see that they're spic and span."

No wonder young Biddle gave up his attempt to get a foothold in the movies.
